WILSON AND MARSHALL ARE THE NOMINEES

PRINCETON SCHOOLMASTER WON ON THE 46TH BALLOT

Illinois Started Break and One by One Other States Fell Into Line—Underwood Withdrew and Clark's Delegates Were Released—Wilson's Nomination Then Made Unanimous—Received 990 Votes.

Baltimore, July 2.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, was made the Presidential nominee at the National Democratic Convention at the afternoon session today on the 46th ballot when he received 990 votes to 84 for Champ Clark. The Missouri delegation, which had remained faithful to Clark to the end, then moved that the nomination be made unanimous. There was a great chorus of approval and the long fight was over.

Only four ballots were necessary today to reach a nomination. When the convention adjourned last night it had seemed to be an all but hopeless deadlock. Wilson had begun to lose ground on the last few ballots and Champ Clark had made a few temporary gains. This encouraged the Speaker to rush over to Baltimore from Washington with some hope of still further turning the tide and rallying his forces to a final stand.

When he reached here, however, he learned that the Illinois delegation, at an early morning conference, had decided to switch from Clark to Wilson. This meant a change of 58 votes and was all fatal to Clark's chances as it was inspiring to the Wilson forces. Illinois had been expected to "break" all day yesterday and there was deep gloom in the Wilson camp when it failed to do so.

With the reconvening this morning, however, the Wilson forces went to the convention hall at noon in the firm belief that the New Jersey Governor would be nominated before another adjournment was taken. As they had anticipated, the vote of Illinois marked the beginning of the end.

Wilson jumped from his final vote of 494 last night to 602 on the first ballot today.

The figures told their own story. The Wilson delegates were jubilant as Chairman James directed the second call of the day—the 44th of the convention. The most important change on this ballot was in the Colorado delegation, which had been voting 11 for Clark and one for Wilson. This time Colorado divided 10 to 2 in favor of Wilson. Altogether the ultimate nominee gained 27 votes on this ballot. Then came the 45th. It was disappointing in a way for Clark held his own and Wilson made a gain of only four.

There were few in the hall at this time who did not believe Wilson would win, but they feared it would take a long, long while for him to attain the 725 2-3 votes necessary to nominate. It was realized that there must be a decided "break" in the Underwood vote, which had held firm from the beginning, before any man could win.

The 46th ballot had been ordered when Senator Bankhead, of Alabama, was seen making his way to the stage. Word flashed over the great armory that his purpose was to withdraw Mr. Underwood from the race and release his delegates to vote for whom they saw fit. The delegates, wearied by the long sessions of the past week, realized all at once that this was indeed the climax. There was a confusion of cheering, applause and calls from one delegation to another. The galleries caught up the disorder and added to the confusion. Senator Bankhead stood for a long while before he could proceed. He had uttered but few words when the meaning of his remarks became clear and there were frequent interruptions of applause and noisy demonstrations.

The only display of temper marking the nominating session came from some of the Missouri delegates. They demanded to know of Senator Bankhead why Mr. Underwod had not withdrawn when Clark appeared to have a chance for the nomination and accused the Underwood delegates of "faking". Senator Bankhead paid no heed to the questions hurled at him. He said Mr. Underwood desired the success of his party above everything else and would not lend himself to any plan to prevent a nomination.

Senator Stone, of Missouri, who had been in consultation with Speaker Clark, climbed to the stage and released in the name of the Speaker all of the delegates who had been pledged to him.

"As for Missouri, however," he added, "she will cast her 36 votes for old Champ Clark to the end."

Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, followed Stone. The convention was in an almost continuous uproar. The Wilson forces already were celebrating their victory. There was no longer any doubt as to the result. Mayor Fitzgerald withdrew the name of Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, from further consideration and declared that the "Old Bay State" would fall in line for Woodrow Wilson. Then a second time Fitzgerald was recognized. This time it was the Congressman from Brooklyn, a member of the New York delegation. He made a plea for harmony and ended by suggesting that a further roll call be dispensed with and the nomination of Wilson be made by acclamation. New York, he said, was ready to vote for the man the great body of the delegates desired as their nominee.

The faithful Missourians objected to this plan, because of their desire to vote a last time for Speaker Clark.

It was a foregone conclusion what the result would be as the last call of the States began. Alabama, which had started every other call with 24 votes for Underwood, changed to Wilson and States after State followed suit. It was just 3:15 P. M. when the solid 76 votes of Pennsylvania carried Wilson over the winning line, making his total at the time 733 votes.

The stampede did not end until 990 of the 1,088 votes in the convention had been cast for the nominee. Missouri with her 36, had been joined on the last ballot for Clark by 24 of California's 26 votes, by five delegates from Florida, two from Louisiana, all six from Nevada, four from New Jersey, the home State of Governor Wilson, six from the District of Columbia, and one from Ohio. This little handful readily joined in the chorus of acclamation when Senator Stone moved that the nomination be made unanimous. It was 3:35 P. M. when Chairman James officially declared Mr. Wilson the nominee of his party. There was an attempt at another demonstration, but the delegates were too tired to keep it up long.

Then, too, the local appropriation for a band had run out last Saturday night and there was no inspiring music to help along the enthusiasm. In this respect the nomination was unique. Everyone in the convention hall seemed in a happy frame of mind that the end had come.

Convention Called to Order.

Chairman James called the Democratic convention to order shortly after noon. He announced the Rev. Geo. T. Grose, of Grace M. E. church, of Baltimore, as chaplain of the day. Rev. Mr. Grose prayed at length.

The clerk of the convention announced another extension of time for the validation of railroad tickets held by delegates. Yesterday an extension to July 10th was announced and today's announcement extended the time until July 15th.

Roll Call Begins Again.

At 12:15 Chairman James directed the calling of the roll for the 43rd time. In Arizona on the 43rd vote Clark lost one vote to Bryan.

Connecticut showed a gain of two for Wilson. They left the Clark column. In Idaho Wilson gained 1 1-2. The hall was quiet as Illinois was reached. When Roger C. Sullivan, of Chicago, announced "18 votes for Clark, 40 for Wilson," there was great cheering.

"Illinois, under the unit rule, casts 58 votes for Wilson," Chairman James announced and another cheer greeted the shift. This gave Wilson a clear gain of 58 votes in Illinois. The New Jersey Governor continued to gain. In Iowa, he added 1 1-2 to his total vote. When Kentucky was called and the vote was announced 26 for Clark, one of the delegates demanded: "I want to know if Kentucky can vote for Wilson if a majority of the delegates desire to do so."

Governor McCreary, chairman of the delegation, argued that the instructions of the Kentuckians would not allow a break. The Wilson men did not press the point, although evidently confident of a vote in the delegation.

In Louisiana Wilson gained two, and in Michigan eight additional votes were obtained.

New York Still for Clark.

New York stopped what for a few minutes looked like a Wilson landslide. Representative William Sulzer announced the New York vote as 90 for Clark as heretofore. This dispelled all hope of a nomination on this ballot.

The delegation had decided in caucus to continue to cast its 90 votes for Clark. The vote in the caucus showed for Clark 78, for Wilson 10, and for Underwood two.

North Carolina added two extra votes to the augmented Wilson count.

When Virginia was reached Senator Swanson arose to explain the State's vote. He asserted that at a caucus this morning the delegation had decided to enforce the unit rule for the first time. Wilson had had a majority of the vote, and the State's 24 votes were cast for him.

The Wilson adherents cheered the Virginia vote, but from the Clark forces there went up a shout of "Ryan and Bryan." Thomas F. Ryan, who was denounced by William J. Bryan, is a member of the Virginia delegation.

The disorder was quieted only to break out with renewed vigor as the entire Clark vote of 16 in West Virginia went over to Wilson. In Wisconsin he gained one more.

The 43rd Ballot.

The 43rd ballot gave Wilson 602; Clark 329; Underwood 98 1-2; Harmon 28; Foss 27; Kern 1; Bryan 1; absent 1 1-2. This gave Wilson a gain of 108 and Clark a loss of 101. Underwood lost 5 1-2. The announcement of this vote started a Wilson demonstration.

"Come on you Wilson," yelled the Jersey delegation as they leaped to their chairs.

The ballot left Wilson with 124 votes short of the necessary two-thirds to nominate.

Once more the call of the roll began. On the 44th ballot Wilson gained one in Arizona. Colorado gave him a gain of nine. This made the vote 10 to two for Wilson. One of the two was Mrs. Anna B. Pitzer, sister-in-law of Speaker Clark.

Wilson Continues to Gain.

In Idaho Wilson lost half a vote, but he gained two as Indiana's vote was cost solidly for him. Wilson gained 3 1-2 in Iowa and one in Louisiana.

The Mississippi delegation was in caucus when called on the 44th ballot and was passed.

Maryland gave Wilson a gain of 1 1-2 and Ohio gave him a gain of one more. Pennsylvania's two men swung into line and gave Wilson the solid 76 from that State.

In Tennessee Wilson gained one. Utah cast its eight votes for him, a gain of 1 1-2 votes. Wisconsin swung into line with its 26 solid votes, a gain of four votes.

The 44th ballot put Wilson 96 1-2 votes away from the nomination. His vote was 629, a gain of 27 as compared with the 43rd ballot. Clark dropped from 329 to 306.

Result of 44th.

The 44th ballot stood: Total 1,088; Clark 306; Wilson 629; Underwood 99; Harmon 27; Foss 27.

An effort was made at the end of the 44th roll call by the Washington delegation to vote proxies on a poll of that delegation. Chairman James insisted upon maintaining his position, formerly taken that no proxies should be voted.

An appeal to the convention sustained the chair by a roaring vote, which seemed almost unanimous.

A poll of the Washington delegation showed five of the 28 delegates with half a vote each, absent, cutting Washington's vote in the convention to 11 1-2. On the poll eight of these were cast for Clark and 3 1-2 for Wilson, but Washington being under the unit rule, 14 votes were recorded for Clark.

Although Wilson made a slight gain early in the 45th ballot, there were no serious breaks in the dwindling Clark ranks.

During this ballot the Wilson leaders worked like beavers to secure the Underwood strength for the New Jersey man. A. Mitchell Palmer, leader of the Wilson forces, visited the Alabama delegates and earnestly urged them to throw their strength to Wilson, but he could secure no agreement.

A poll of the New Mexico delegation on this ballot showed an inclination to break the solid eight Clark votes, but they were held by the unit rule. New York's 90 again went to Clark and hope of a nomination on this ballot was lost.

In Ohio Wilson gained, the vote being Harmon 25; Wilson 23.

The change on the 45th ballot was slight, Clark remaining at 306, Wilson advanced from 602 to 622. Wilson's progress at this point had not been so steady, while the Clark forces endeavored to gather enough votes to block the rush to Wilson.

The End in Sight.

The end came in sight when at the beginning of the 46th ballot Senator Bankhead, of Alabama, manager for the Underwood forces, mounted the platform.

"Mr. Chairman," he began, "Mr. Underwood entered this contest hoping he might secure the nomination from this convention. But I desire to say for him, that his first and greatest hope was that through this contest he might eliminate for all time every vestige of sectional prejudice in this convention. Mr. Underwood would willingly forego this nemination, if the country has concluded that Mason and Dixon's Line has been trampled out and that it is once more a thoroughly united country."

Senator Bankhead said Mr. Underwood did not enter the race to defeat any man and would not be a party to any such plan. His hope was that what he had accomplished for Democracy would help to secure the election of a Democratic President next November. He was for the party nominee and always has been. Mr. Underwood had taken no personal part in

FIVE KILLED WHEN AIRSHIP EXPLODES

Great Dirigible Akron Bursts While 500 Feet in the Air and Hurls Melvin Vaniman and Crew of Four Into the Waters of the Broad Atlantic—Greatest and Costliest of Air Craft.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 2.—Sailing out over the Atlantic ocean under perfect control and in view of several thousand interesting persons the great airship Akron, in command of Melvin Vaniman, of a crew of four, exploded while more than 500 feet in the air early today and shot down into the water a tangled mass, carrying to their death the daring navigator and his companions. Death is believed to have come instantly to the five men.

In all the tragic history of disasters to airships or aeroplanes probably none was as sensational as that which brought to an end the greatest and most costly air craft ever constructed on the Western hemisphere. Built to withstand the storms of the Atlantic and to carry at least a dozen men across the ocean to Europe, the Akron went to her doom in calm weather. Those who went down with the big dirigible beside the intrepid Vaniman, who already had had one thrilling experience in an airship on the ocean were:

Calvin Vaniman, his younger brother; Fred Elmer, George Bourillion, of Philadelphia, and Walter G. Gest, a friend of Vaniman's financial backer.

Up to sundown two bodies, those of Calvin Vaniman and Bourillion were recovered from the wreckage which lies submerged in about 18 feet of water off Brigantine Beach.

The Akron, which had been inflated last February with gas manufactured by Vaniman in the big hangar at the inlet, was taken out shortly after 6 A. M., for a test flight. One flight had already been made about a month ago and defects discovered at that time were remedied and today's trial was to have been among the last prior to the attempt to cross the Atlantic.

Mrs. Vaniman bid her husband good bye at their little cottage near the hangar at 2 A. M., and waited for daybreak to see her husband sail away.

The launching of the air craft was accomplished without difficulty and she sailed gracefully away. Over the waters of Absecon inlet Vaniman maneuvered her and then sailed down over the city, and after completing a few other movements shaped the ship's course out to sea.

When a half mile off Brigantine Beach, the thousands of spectators who had been watching the ship, saw a burst of flames outlined against the morning sky.

In a few seconds they were horrified to see the car of the balloon detach itself from the bag and shoot downward into the water, followed by the collapsed gas bag.

By intuition everybody appeared to have realized what had occurred and soon a hundred boats were beating their way out over the rough waters of the inlet bar. When the first boats reached the scene of the wreck the rescuers found only the collapsed bag.

After a search a submerged body, that of the younger Vaniman, was recovered.

Among the first on the scene were United States life savers. Divers went down to the wreck, but there was little that could be done until low tide, when Gest's body was disentangled from the wreckage and brought to shore.

Mrs. Vaniman saw the collapse of the balloon and its drop into the ocean, carrying with it her husband and brother-in-law. She fell in a faint and was unconscious for some time.

After recovering consciousness she talked of her husband's bravery. The wives of Bourrillion, Gest and Elmer, who lived nearby, also saw the disaster from their homes. At the Vaniman cottage a most distressing scene followed. Men turned away as the four widows wept on one another's shoulders.

After the first excitement and shock had passed, Mrs. Vaniman again collapsed and later in the day was under the care of a physician. She was suffering with frequent fainting spells and her condition is serious.

There are many theories as to the cause of the disaster. One is that air got into the gas bag. Another that the rays of the morning sun expanded the gas and caused the great envelope to burst. The third was that flames somehow reached the gasoline and a fourth that a stray rope caught in one of the propellers, that it was whipped around and striking the gas bag tore a hole in it, letting out the gas.

New York, July 2.—Fifty persons were killed and 275 seriously injured in June by vehicles in the streets of New York City. Automobiles killed 26 and injured 153; street cars killed 10 and injured 99, and wagons caused the death of 14 and the injury of 23. In June, 1911, automobiles caused the death of 12 persons; trolleys killed seven, and wagons 14.

INDIANA MAN FOR VICE PRESIDENCY

Thomas R. Marshal Who Ran Ahead From the First Secures Nomination on Third Ballot—Burke Was Second But Withdrew—Clark Refused to Accept—Platform Adopted

This was the ticket completed by the Democratic National Convention at 1:56 A. M. today.

The nomination of Governor Marshall for Vice President came somewhat as a surprise for when the night's balloting for Vice President began it seemed that the Bryan-Wilson contingent in the convention had definitely settled upon Governor John E. Burke, of North Dakota.

There was not much of a fight, however, and when the two ballots disclosed Marshall easily in the lead, Governor Burke's name was withdrawn and Marshall was proclaimed the nominee by acclamation. A minute later the convention had adjourned sine die.

The delegates, worn and weary made their way out of the big convention hall singing and happy to be started for home.

-luya

At 9:35 P. M., Chairman James called the convention to order.

The Rev. Carlton D. Harris, of the South M. E. church, of Baltimore, delivered the invocation.

Chairman James then announced nominations of candidates for the Vice President of the United States is now in order."

The roll call began. Alabama passed. Arizona had no name to offer. California, Colorado, Connecticut and Delaware passed.

H. H. Dean, of Georgia, mounted the platform to make the first nomination.

"We want to nominate a real great man," he shouted. "From all over the hall came cries of "Clark, Clark, Clark." For several minutes Dean continued amid shouts of "Name your man." "Who is he?"

When he finally placed Clark in nomination a yell sounded through the hall.

Meantime, the leaders were exerting every effort to reach Clark on the telephone. As Dean concluded former Governor A. M. Dockery, of Missouri, hurried to the platform to decline the nomination for Clark.

"The Hon. Champ Clark has decided he cannot accept the office of Vice President," said Dockery.

"Champ Clark did not reach this conclusion out of pique," continued Dockery. "He is as loyal to the Democratic party and to its nominee, Woodrow Wilson, as he ever was. Speaker Clark simply prefers to remain in his present place, or to remain a simple member of the House of Representatives."

As Dockery concluded the call came to North Dakota and Governor Burke, of North Dakota, was placed in nomination. Mr. Purcell characterized Governor Burke as "a Progressive of Progressives."

He asserted that Governor Burke would draw many progressive Republican votes to the Democratic ticket.

Idaho seconded the nomination of Burke. Samuel Alchuler, of Illinois, nominated Elmore Hurst, of Rock Island, Ill.

C. F. Menzies, of Indiana, nominated Governor Thomas R. Marshall for the Vice Presidency. Henry Volmer, of Iowa, nominated Martin J. Wade. He urged "Wilson and Wade" as a ticket that would sweep the country.

Mr. Wade himself followed Volmer and declared that he did not desire the place himself. He seconded the nomination of Governor Burke and Kansas seconded the nomination of Burke, and Louisiana seconded that of Governor Marshall.

Alonzo T. Mills, of Maryland, placed Mayor James Preston, of Baltimore, in nomination.

A. Mitchell Palmer, Wilson manager, asked unanimous consent that the consideration of the Vice Presidential nomination be suspended and the report of the Committee on Resolutions received and acted upon. Unanimous consent was obtained and Senator Kern, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, read the platform.

The platform was adopted by a viva voce vote.

When the Vice Presidenttial nomination was again taken up it was after midnight.

Michigan seconded the nomination of Governor Marshall.

Minnesota seconded Governor Burke.

Mississippi seconded Marshall.

Missouri passed.

Montana seconded Burke.

Several States passed and then "Alfalfa Bill" Murry, of Oklahoma, seconded Burke.

Judge Will R. King, of Oregon, offered in nomination Senator George E. Chamberlain of that State.

Senator Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, seconded the nomination of Senator Chamberlain.

When the District of Columbia was reached one of the delegates rose and proposed William J. Bryan as a Vice Presidential candidate. A roar swept the hall as the name was mentioned.

Bryan, sitting quiet in his seat in the Nebraska section, was immediately surrounded by a group of supporters urging him to speak.

"Take the platform. Take the platform," shouted the delegates.

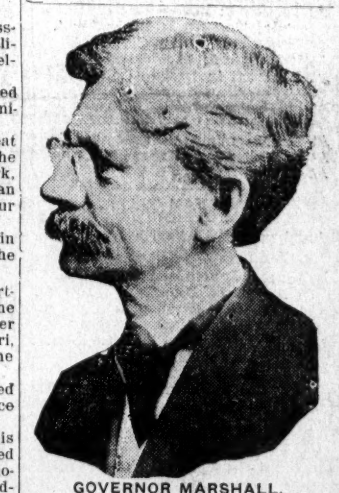
Surrounded by a small group Bryan made his way to the stage to deliver his valedictory.

Declaring that for 16 years he had been a fighting man, Colonel Bryan said that he had not hesitated to arouse the hostility and the enmity of individuals where he felt it his duty to do so, in behalf of the country.

"If I have any enemies in this country," said Mr. Bryan, "those who are my enemies had a monopoly of hatred. There is not one human for whom I feel a hatred (applause). Nor ios there one American citizen in my own party or any other that I would oppose for anything except I believed that in not opposing him I was surrendering the interests of my country which I hold above any person.

"I recognize that a man who fights must carry scars (applause), and I decided long before this campaign commenced that I had been in so many battles and had alienated so many that by party ought to have the leadership of some one who had not thus offended and who thus might lead with greater hope of victory (applause).

"And tonight I come with joy to surrender into the hands of the one chosen by this convention a standard which



GOVERNOR MARSHALL.

Nominated at Early Hour as Wilson's Running Mate.

I carried in three campaigns and I challenge my enemies to declare that it has ever been lowered in the face of the enemy. (Great applause and cheering).

"The same belief that led me to prefer another for the Presidency rather than to be a candidate myself, leads me to prefer another, rather than to be a candidate myself.

"It is not because the Vice Presidency is lower in importance than the Presidency that I decline.

"There is no office in this Nation so low that I would not take it if I could serve my country by accepting it. (Great applause and cheering). I believe that I can render more service to my country when I have not the embarrassment of a nomination and have not the suspicion of a selfish interest, more service than I could as a candidate, and your candidates will not be more active in this campaign than I shall be. (Great applause and cheering).

"My services are at the command of the party and I feel a relief now that the burden of leadership is transferred to other shoulders.

"All I ask is having given us a platform, the most progressive that any party of any size has ever adopted in this nation, and having given us a candidate, who I believe will appeal not only to the Democratic vote, but to some three or four millions of Republicans who have been aliented by the policies of their party, there is but one thing left and that is to give us a Vice President with our President who is also progressive so that there will be no joint debate between our candidates. (Great applause).

"Let me in conclusion, second the nomination not of one man, but of two men, Governor Burke, of North Dakota, and Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon." (Long and continued applause).

As Mr. Bryan concluded the roll call on the Vice Presidential nomination was ordered. The ballot showed a widely-scattered vote and it was apparent early in the roll call that there would be no nomination on the first ballot. Generally the anti-Bryan delegates were inclined to support Marshall, but the lines were not sharply drawn.

The Indianan took the lead, howev-

W. J. BRYAN TALKS.

Nebraskan Confident With Progressive Platform and Candidate.

Baltimore, June 2.—William J. Bryan in a statement tonight said that the nomination of Wodrow Wilson on a progressive platform meant an overwhelming victory for the Democratic ticket next Fall.

"I feel sure that the action of the convention this far will appeal to the country," said Mr. Bryan. "I had no choice among progressive candidates, but from the first I included Governor Wilson in every list I had occasion to make. His action in coming out strongly against Mr. Parker for temporary chairman was the turning point in his campaign.

"I am satisfied that with Mr. Wilson running for President on the platform which has been prepared there will be comparatively few progressive Republicans who will not feel justified in supporting the Democratic ticket. If I were to make an estimate I would say that we ought to have not less than two million majority of the popular vote and enough of the electoral vote to give us an overwhelming majority in the electoral college.

"It is fortunate that Mr. Wilson's nomination was made without the aid of Mr. Murphy. It is no reflection upon the many good men in the New York delegation to say this.

From every standpoint the outlook is hopeful. The dawn is here and progressive Democracy will be the people's pillar of cloud by day."

Among those who came out in statements tonight pledging support to the Democratic ticket were Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall; William Randolph Hearst, August Belmont, Senator Stone, of Missouri, who was one of the principal leaders of the Clark campaign for the Presidential nomination, and former Senator DuBois, who was the active manager of the Clark campaign.

"Governor Wilson is an able man and a great Democrat," declared Mr. Murphy. "He will have the enthusiastic and loyal support of the Democracy of New York. I am confident he will be elected President."

William R. Hearst, who has been one of the principal promoters of Clark's candidacy, tonight said:

"We have made a good fight and lost. I will support the ticket nominated and expect to see it win. I intend to die game in this fight. I am now for Wilson."

DIXON HOLDS CONFERENCE.

Says Progressive Convention Will be Called August 1st.

New York, July 2.—The National convention of the new Progressive party will be held at Chicago on or about August 1st, it was announced late today by Senator Dixon, after a conference with Col. Roosevelt and a number of Roosevelt leaders. Senator Dixon said that the formal call for the convention would be issued in New York in a day or two by the temporary committee on organization.

CLARK GETS MAD

Won't Accept Vice Presidential Nomination——Returns Home

Washington, July 2.—Defeated after a hard battle, but satisfied with the fortunes of war, Speaker Clark returned to the capital from the convention city tonight and repaired to his office to thunder his renunciation of the Vice Presidency into the telephone as often as it was suggested to him.

The Speaker motored back from Baltimore, where he spent the day at the Baltimore Club with his son Bennet. He took dinner with his family and later issued a statement pledging his support to Governor Wilson, and voicing his contempt for the tactics of William Jennings Bryan, whom he credits with his defeat. The Speaker seemed the least affected of his family over his defeat.

He had no complaint to make of the final break, but said that victory could have been his had the Underwood forces helped him on the 10th ballot and thereafter. He said Senator Bankhead merely precipitated the inevitable. He seemed relieved that the strain was over and that he could retire from political activity for a few weeks.

In most emphatic terms the Speaker disclaimed any desire to be Vice President.

Speaker Clark said the would not run under any circumstances. "I am not mad," he said, "but the Vice Presidency does not fit me. I am a rough and tumble, but humble debater. I am more at home in the House. I would rather be a member of that body than tied down in a chamber in which I am powerless to participate."

Diligent effort was made by the leaders in Baltimore to get Mr. Clark to say he would accept the Vice Presidential nomination and it was to escape the importuning of his friends that he returned to Washington. Word was conveyed to him that Mr. Bryan desired to nominate him and that the nomination would be by acclamation. To all couriers Mr. Clark gave the same reply and when he heard that the nomination was being considered in spite of his refusal he displayed some temper.

"Tell those people over there I will not take that nomination," he instructed the representative when told of the movement.

"What will you do if they nominate you and adjourn?" he was asked.

"Refuse it. I tell you I don't want it and will not have it," replied Mr. Clark.

CONGRATULATES WILSON

Gov. Marshall Says He Will Work for His Election

Indianapolis, Ind., July 2.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, this afternoon telegraphed to Governor Woodrow Wilson:

"To the length of my ability and influence I propose to work for your election.

'I never asked any delegate to the Democratic convention to vote for me," said the Governor, "and I did not expect the nomination for President except as a remote possibility. The nomination of Governor Wilson is eminently satisfactory to me."

WAS NEWS TO HIM.

Underwood Didn't Withdraw—President Taft Hears News.

Washington, July 2.—Representative Oscar W. Underwood, who ran third in the Presidential race on 45 ballots, maintained his same calm imperturbability when the news of his withdrawal and the stampede to Governor Wilson was taken to him today. He was in his office in the Capitol surrounded by many friends in Congress, Republicans and Democrats alike.

"Underwood has withdrawn," was flashed over the wire.

The Alabama representative smiled and said, "I did not know that I was withdrawing. Senator Bankhead is in charge of my campaign and my friends there know best what to do. It is news to me, but what the Senator says goes."

Mr. Underwood's advice had been that he was to be given a try-out as the third candidate to break the deadlock. He fully expected that action during the day and when Virginia voted for Wilson he thought a return would be made to the other candidates on the succeeding ballot.

After the bulletin announcing the withdrawal was received, there came a message quoting Senator Bankhead as saying that he withdrew Mr. Underwood's name at the direction of the candidate. Mr. Underwood reiterated his first statement and after talking with Baltimore on the telephone said:

"My friends ask me to make it clear that my name was withdrawn without my knowledge or approval. I make the statement."

Mr. Underwood hastened to add that he did not disapprove Senator Bankhead's action and voiced the appreciation of the services of the man who had managed his campaign.

"The loyalty of the Senator and my friends has been a source of gratification to me and I thank them for it. We have succeeded in one thing, at least, and have impressed the country and our party that a Southern man can be a candidate for the Presidency," he said. "I will support the nominee of the convention and shall spend my time working for the ticket chosen at the convention."

Mr. Underwood was asked about the Vice Presidency. "Will you accept it?" was the question. "I am not a candidate; do not want it and would not accept it."

The suggestion was made that on sentimental grounds the Vice Presidency might be the stepping stone on which the South would regain its position in National politics.

"That is true," said Mr. Underwood, "but if I got the nomination and accepted, some people would say I had made a deal for it. I have made no deal and have traded with no man. I want my friends to know this, and I also want them to know that when I get into a fight I do not quit. I was withdrawn without my knowledge and want those who helped me to understand it."

Mr. Underwood has been keenly attentive to the proceedings at Baltimore, but not once has he displayed any anxiety. He based his hopes on a compromise.

"I am glad this is over for one thing," he said. "Mrs. Underwood will have a little more peace of mind now."

Among the first to greet the defeated candidate after the nomination of Governor Wilson became known was Representative Nicholas Longworth.

"Congratulations, Oscar," he said. "You have made a game fight and we are proud of you."

Mr. Underwood sent the following telegram to Governor Woodrow Wilson, at Seagirt, N. J.:

"Accept my congratulations on your nomination. It will be my pleasure to support your candidacy to my utmost strength.

"OSCAR UNDERWOOD."

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, today telegraphed to Governor Wilson as follows:

"I have prayed to live to see a real Democrat President before I die. Next March my prayer will be answered. Congratulations to you and our country."

President Taft heard the news of Governor Wilson's nomination while at luncheon in the White House with Mrs. Taft and other members of his family. The President declined to make any comment.

Friends of Mr. Taft, however, said tonight that they could find a grain of comfort in the selection of the Baltimore convention. Expecting Col. Roosevelt to continue his plan for a third party, they could count upon the progressive element supported between Roosevelt and Wilson.

It is well known in Washington that the President and his friends feared the nomination of Governor Harmon or Oscar Underwood far more than they did that of Governor Wilson.

Aurora, Ill., July 2.—The Los Angeles limited, eastbound, one of the fastest passenger trains on the Northwestern Railroad, struck an automobile three miles east of Geneva, Ill., today, killing two men and a woman and fatally injuring a third man.

A terrible skin-trouble cured.

Her husband feared the worst. But B.B.B. saved her.

"I am satisfied that your B.B.B. saved my wife from the grave", writes Mr. V. C. Kirby of Toccoa, Ga. "She no doubt had a blood-disease from the way the doctors describe it. And B.B.B. has certainly done the work for her".

Mrs. Kirby's case was unusually severe. And J. B. Brooks of Atlanta, Ga., states that the physicians were completely baffled by it.

"Anyway it was a very stubborn case of skin-trouble", he says. "But after her taking B.B.B., I called to see her personally and she was looking fine!"

Nearly all skin-complaints come from impure blood. And B.B.B. is one of the most thorough blood-cleansers ever discovered. That is why it has such a remarkable effect on skin-troubles of every kind. It cures them from the inside. And that makes the cure permanent and complete.

Tell your druggist you are bound to give this splendid medicine a fair trial. He will supply you. For your own sake insist on it.

If necessary write to the Blood Balm Co. Philadelphia or St. Louis. Your money back if B.B.B. fails to help you.

..Theatrical..

The New Bijou will maintain its joy riding speed today by presenting another swell bill, and one that will savor of the very best in every line. In addition to the film offering there will also be merry, tuneful musical hits, all new and from dear old Broadway. In addition to this the Bijou offers a decidedly comfortable spot for amusement lovers; a spot cool at all times and surrounded by the freshest of atmosphere. The perfect and free ventilation of the theatre is one of its biggest features and strongest drawing cards.

A great Russian photoplay is one of the stars today, and if there is one theme that appeals to people more than another it is a story of Russian life. This particular film is called "The Exile," and its first scenes are laid in bleak Siberia, with the final ones in California.

Another one of those great films dealing with the Mexican revolution is also on the bill. It is "The Colonel's Escape", and is one of the most stirring moving picture stories ever created.

There are other film features today, and so today's bill must not be missed by any amusement lover who relishes good things and wants to partake of such.

At the Grand Theatre

Comedy will occupy a prominent place in the bill for today at the Grand Theatre and a great double film, "The Rube Detective," and "The Chauffeur's Dream" will be presented, as the topliners. This film is by Kalem and should draw exceedingly well.

The "Rube Detective" is a rural comedy. Rube learns through the newspapers that anyone can be taught to become a detective for $25. He sends his money and receives instructions. In following his directions how to become a detective Rube is arrested for being a common nuisance. That night robbers plunder the village postoffice. The town constable attempts to ferret the crime without success and in his desperation turns to Rube. Rube takes the trail and proceeds to emulate the example of Sherlock Holmes. He rounds up the burglars and marches them back to the village where he is proclaimed the hero of the hour. "The Chauffeur's Dream" is a story of a joy ride that turns out quite sensationally and will be found very interesting and amusing.

While comedy will hold sway at the Grand today there will be a romantic drama by Lubin, "From Fireman to Engineer." Steve Reardon is fireman on a yard engine and is trying hard for promotion. He expects soon to marry Molly Duncan, the roadmaster's daughter. He finally summons up courage and asks the superintendent for an engine, but is told that they do not think he is yet qualified. One day the superintendent's little daughter, who likes Steve very much, pays a visit to the yard and climbs on an engine and playing with the throttle starts the monster forward. Reardon sees the engine jump forward. He appeals to the engineer of the limited for help but fails. In desperation he knocks the engineer down, uncouples the engine and starts in chase of the runaway which he overtakes and captures. He brings it and the child back and gets promotion and wins his sweetheart.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Correspondence School for National Guard—State Board of Dental Examiners—Encampment as Originally Scheduled.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 2.—The correspondence school for officers of the North Carolina National Guard has closed for the year and is declared by Gen. Leinster and Capt. Daugherty to have been especially successful. The highesst average was made by Major T. S. Pace, Second Infantry, Wilson, whose record was 92.75; second best average was Capt. R. R. Morrison, First Infantry, Mooresville, 92.25, and third best Capt. A. L. Bulwinkle, Third Infantry, Gastonia, 90.93. There were 26 officers who took the course.

There are five negroes in the class of 46 men who are taking the examination as applicants for licenses to practice dentistry in North Carolina, the examination being in progress in representatives' hall, of the State House before the State Board of Examiners of the North Carolina State Dental Society. The examinations will not be concluded until Wednesday evening and then it will be a week or longer before the announcement of the successful applicats will be made. In the meantime the State Dental Society meets Wednesday, continuing until Saturday. The new dentists will not be announced until after the adjournment of the society. The State Society will be welcomed Wednesday morning by Governor Kitchin. The indications are for quite a large attendance.

With the passage through both houses of Congress of the resolution providing for the money to meet the expenses of the joint maneuvers by regulars and National guardsmen, it is settled that the Third Regiment will go to Anniston, Ala., for joint maneuvers July 6th to 15th. This being settled it is now definitely settled that there will be no changes in the original programmes for the encampment of the two other regiments. The Second Regiment goes to Morehead for encampment July 3rd to 12th, and the First Regiment to Morehead July 16th to 25th, the Coast Artillery to Fort Caswell August 15th to 26th, and Troop A, Cavalry will make its practice March, Rutherfordton to Asheville, July 22nd to 31st.

There are now 440 teachers registered for the Summer school at the University of North Carolina and preparations are on foot for a big Fourth of July celebration. Col. F. A. Olds and Carle Jansen will be the special speakers. There will be the presentation of the New North Carolina Historic drama, Esther Wake, on the night of July 4th by teachers selected from the Summer school enrollment. Later this stirring play of the Revolutionary period will be presented at Raleigh, Greensboro and Charlotte.

EN ROUTE TO ASHEVILLE.

Col. E. D. Pearsall Submits Some Observations and Remarks.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

En Route, Asheville, July 2.—The outlook for crops between Wilmington and Goldsboro is not near so good as last July 1st, when your correspondent took the same trip; corn and cotton crops are especially cut short, judging from the car windows. At all stations where people were interviewed, the same cause has been assigned: too much June rains which have seriously damaged everything. The first tobacco seen is near Warsaw. That crop has a spotted appearance, ready for crapping. At Bowden, a new town seems as if by magic to have sprung up in the woods. It's now Greater Bowden. At Faison all kinds of truck seems to be shipping. From roasting ears, cukes, cantaloupes, cabbage down to humble ground huckleberries are all going forward. By far the best cotton and corn seen is between Faison, Calypso and Mount Olive, the greatest potato shipping belt of the A. C. L. Fine crops of cotton are coming on after the Irish potato and bean crops are shipped. Mount Olive, Calypso and Faison have shipped in round numbers approximately 130,000 barrels of Irish potatoes. The barrel famine turned out a good thing. It kept the latter product from being rushed off and the distribution was restricted. From the present outlook the Fourth of July watermelon that was the boast of the ante-bellum farm will not be in evidence this time. The cold, wet backward Spring in June has much retarded its growth.

WAKE COUNTY SCHOOLS.

Annual Report of Superintendent Judd Shows Progress.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 1.—Superintendent Z. V. Judd, of the Wake county public schools, presented his annual report on Wake county school affairs to the county board of education today, the creditable showing being made that during the seven years that he has been superintendent the value of school property has advanced from $36,000 to $150,000 and a gain of 1,250 in the enrollment. There are 83 white and 59 negro schools in the State. The average school term for the county is a little more than six months. There are 28 special tax districts that have terms of seven months or more each.

Prominent and observant public men hereabouts are predicting that this country is just now having its last great National political conventions and insisting that the Chicago convention proved and the Baltimore convention is still further demonstrating that National conventions are anything but safe and sane deliberative bodies from which there can result the sober judgment of the political party as to candidates and policies. They are insisting that primaries must necessarily be resorted to.

THOUSANDS CALL ON WILSON

Many Rush to Seagirt to Congratulate The Nominee

Seagirt, N. J., July 2.—Five thousand or so "original Woodrow Wilson men" and hundreds of others of varying politics paid their respects in person to the nominee this afternoon and tonight.

The Freehold Democratic Club, 300 strong, led by Charles J. Parker, whose father, Joel Parker, was twice Governor of the State, won the race for first honors in greeting the Governor in competition with a Democratic club in Manasquan.

By the time they reached the Governor's cottage they had accummulated nearly 1,000 followers and a brass band.

"I am profoundly stirred," said Governor Wilson, stepping from the porch to the walk and shaking hands with every one." I am not prepared to make a speech, gentlemen. I can only say I thank you."

John Fort, former Governor of New Jersey and now a Roosevelt supporter, called to pay his compliments.

The Central Railroad of New Jersey and the Pennsylvania each ran a special train to Seagirt to convey Governor Wilson to Baltimore if he wished to go there or anywhere else for that matter, the conductor said. Trains were still standing at the station with steam popping from the locomotives' safety valves at a late hour.

Governor Wilson said he was not going to Baltimore.

For a time tonight congratulatory telegrams poured in at the rate of 900 an hour. William J. Bryan did not entrust his congratulations to the wire, but called upon the telephone. He told the Governor he was happy, satisfied and wished him the victory he predicted would come in November. This message came from Champ Clark:

"Just leaving for Washington. I congratulate you upon your hard-earned victory and will do all I can to elect you."

Other messages of congratulation came from Judson Harmon; Representative Underwood; Governor Marshall, of Indiana; Dr. Harvey W. Wiley and Mayor Carter Harrison, of Chicago.

Governor Mann, of Virginia, wired: "Virginia congratulates herself over being the mother of another President and the country because it will have a chief executive who stands for highest ideals for government."

The original Woodrow Wilson Club wired from Princeton: "A real ninth-inning finish; you can't lose."

Governor Dix, of New York: "You have won a fine race and will win the Presidency. Congratulations and assurances of hearty support."

Congressman Henry George, Jr., said: "The hopes of the republic are in your hands."

Mayor Gaynor, through his secretary, wired: "Congratulations; you will be elected President by the biggest vote ever given a Democrat."

Some of the great sheaf of messages were in lighter vein. One, from a Jersey City man, recommended a friend for appointment as "minister to Ireland." Another from Baltimore read: "We killed the houn' dawg and the bull moose at 3:30. Hallelujah."

FOUNDERS' DAY OBSERVED

Great Occasion at East Carolina Teachers' Training School

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greenville, N. C., July 2.—The fourth anniversary of Founders' Day of the East Carolina Teachers' Institute was fittingly celebrated today by the school. A large crowd was in attendance. Four years ago on July 2nd, ground was first broken for the erection of the buildings and in these few years there has sprung up an institution here that is exerting an educational influence throughout North Carolina and even into neighboring States. Greenville and the school had among her guests the next Governor, Locke Craig; next Lieut. Governor, E. L. Daughtridge, and Hon. J. O. Carr; State Treasurer B. R. Lacy and Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, each of whom made interesting addresses at the celebration. The student body also gave an excellent musicale programme. The business houses of Greenville showed their pride in the occasion by closing during the hours of the exercises. The Summer term that is now in progress at this school has over 300 in attendance, about one-third of whom have to find board in the town because of insufficient room in the domitories. If the demand is met the next Legislature must provide for larger increase in the capacity of the school.

RUFUS TILLERY INJURED

Cooperage Employe Lost Right Leg—Naval Reserves Inspected

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., July 2.—Rufus Tillery, an employe of the Pamlico Cooperage Company, of this city, became entangled in some of the machinery this morning and had his right leg cut off before he could extricate himself. The accident occurred about 12 o'clock just before closing down for dinner.

Mr. Tillery was taken to the Washington Hospital immediately where Dr. D. T. Tayloe rendered all necessary surgical aid and the young man is doing as well as could be expected, though suffering from the nervous shock.

The Sixth Division North Carolina Naval Reserves of this city under command of Lieutenant Charles L. Morton, were formally inspected at the armory of Company G, N. C. National Guards in this city on last Saturday night, by Col. H. D. Harper, of Kinston, and Lieutenant Commander Fred Shipp, of Newbern. The inspection was very rigid but the local company made a very creditable showing and are especially to be congratulated.

GATE CITY AFFAIRS

Police Make Arrest — Other News Notes of Interest

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 2.—The police of Greensboro yesterday arrested a negro named Freeman, alias Will Johnson, wanted by the Virginia officers as an escaped convict. The negro put up a stiff fight but was overpowered and later in the evening taken as far as Danville. Johnson or Freeman made his escape from the Virginia penitentiary where he was serving a long sentence but how he succeeded in escaping he refused to divulge.

It is probable that the Greensboro school row involving Supt. Mann on the one hand and many patrons—including the mothers' organization of the town—on the other, will soon come to a head. Dr. Mann yesterday afternoon appeared before the City Commissioners and inquired if specific charges had been filed against him. He was told no whereupon he wanted to know if there was any way by which the present agitation could be brought to a climax; that he feared its continuance would work a detriment to the schools. It was later stated by Mrs. Charles Van Noppen, one of the ladies interested in the move against Dr. Mann, to have him relieved as superintendent, that charges would be preferred in a few days; that the delay has been due to the absence from town of several members of the mothers' committee. The affair has created something of a stir and those having the best interest of the schools at heart are anxious that the agitation end.

Alexander Graham came into the United States bankruptcy court here yesterday afternoon and admitting his insolvency was adjudged a bankrupt. The liabilities of the bankrupt are placed at approximately $3,000, while it is claimed that he has assets of an equal amount.

The board of county commissioners of Guilford yesterday afternoon appointed delegates to the State Good Roads Association meeting to be held in Charlotte August 1st and 2nd, naming the following delegates: Fred N. Tate, J. J. Farriss, W. C. Tucker, W. C. Boren, John C. Kennett, W. G. Bradshaw, C. G. Wright, John L. King, J. A. Hoskins and Dr. W. T. Whitsett.

There is one sure and certain way for every woman to have beautiful hair, and that is to give it intelligent care, which includes the use of Newbro's Herpicide.

This remarkable preparation kills absolutely the dandruff germ, eradicates dandruff and prevents the hair from falling.

The prophylactic action of Herpicide keeps the hair free from disease, and with the scalp sweet and clean a natural hair growth is inevitable.

Herpicide hair scintillates with health and vigor, light and luster, produced only by the well-known scalp and hair dressing, Newbro's Herpicide.

All druggists sell it and guarantee one dollar size bottles.

All first-class barbers and hair dressers use and recommend it.

A sample and booklet will be sent to any address upon receipt of 10c by The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payments for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Oh, you big Wilson bandwagon!

Our Democratic friends should have taken a camp equipment to Baltimore.

Roosevelt knows a lot of things, but he had no idea it was loaded.

Wilson the winner won. Hurrah for Wilson!

Order your rooster cut for November.

Old fashioned deadlocks used to be opened with whiskey.

The man who saws wood and says nothing must belong to the peace party.

T. R. failed to show up at Baltimore. Probably he got all he wanted at Chicago.

What is a row between friends who misunderstand each other's sentiments and motives?

Our idea of a man with nerve is one who runs for judge on the Teddycrat ticket.

In order to change the subject, "Don't have a row over the baby," and "don't jump the baby up and down."

Probably Tom Watson is glad he got sick and went to bed with something equally as good as cold feet.

Pandemonium is uncrowned, but it reigned in Chicago and reigned some more at Baltimore.

Tomorrow is July 4th. It will enable people to take a rest from an excess of excitement during the past few days.

The New York delegates at the Baltimore convention must have reason to believe that all the world loves a knocker.

Col. Harry S. New, of Indiana, predicts a Taft victory. A political optimist now is a man who doesn't know what he is talking about.

Oratory has its strong points, but when it is fired too often it overshoots the mark. "Who is this that uttereth words without wisdom?"

Baltimore got her money's worth out of the National Democratic Convention, and can also compare notes with Chicago as to sensational and dramatic climaxes.

The steam roller's sparker began to miss early at Baltimore. Pussy feet can go further in a Democratic convention than a steam roller.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch says: "A glass of water costs 15 cents in Baltimore." That must have furnished the average delegate with a good excuse to boycott water.

The war between Italy and Turkey is still in progress because the Turks continue to refuse to come out of the desert and get licked.

The "political situation" is a job that looks good to a fellow who is tough enough to make the hammer bounce off.

A furniture factory has manufactured a bed that will accommodate ten persons. At the same time, could two kinds of Democrats have room enough in it to keep from getting together?

Editor Alexander Moore, of the Pittsburg Leader, the latest husband of Lillian Russell, declares that he will stick to Teddy. He says he has not left the Republican party, but the G. O. P. has left him, because "it has become the party of the predatory interests, rather than the people." It takes some people a long time to recognize a hoary headed truth.

WILSON THE INEVITABLE

That is what The Star claimed a long time ago and that is how it turned out at Baltimore in the final hours of the Democratic convention yesterday afternoon. It will turn out that way at the National election on the 5th of next November.

The nomination of Dr. Wilson came after a hard-fought battle lasting eight days over Sunday, and it came as a result of the reasons stated in The Star at the very beginning of the campaign. The convention seemed slow to recognize the nationwide demand for Wilson, but it necessarily must have been a battle royal with such big men as the Hon. Oscar W. Underwood, the Hon. Champ Clark, and Governor Judson Harmon. The convention had to handle big timber, and the long drawn-out fight was because the distinguished candidates had their loyal friends who fought to the last ditch.

They were fighting the inevitable. All must have foreseen the final result but it was only temporarily postponed because strong men were in the field making it difficult for the opposing lines to break away. Slowly the convention came to the conclusion that Wilson was the man who was most eligible in those doubtful States which it is necessary for the Democracy to win in order to elect a President.

Wilson was finally nominated because of the great sweep of his eligibility—North, East, South and West. The distinguished New Jersey Governor was a runner all over the Nation and not in spots. He will win all over the Nation, for he looms big. He will grow bigger and broader from now till November, and his great ability and strong convictions for popular rights and an honored nation will more and more impress the public as his strength towers in the eyes of a people who want their government rescued from the grasp of privilege.

Wilson is the man of the hour. The Democracy can hoist a standard under which all men should feel proud to do battle for a just cause in a Nation's crisis—in a crisis of popular rights and equal privileges and constitutional government. The Democracy's nominee is eminent for his lofty character and profound integrity; for his scholarship and his wisdom; for his insistence upon the rights of the masses and his unsullied Jeffersonian Democracy interpreted by a school master with trained mind and mature knowledge.

Wilson is scholar, author, statesman and patriot, and the American Republic will have in the White House learning and wisdom, high purpose and mature conception. The Republic will have a President who has been a tireless student of its principles and institutions, and is a postgraduate as to the old and new public questions identified with the cause of the people and the destiny of the United States as it was intended by the fathers. Our nominee is a statesman and administrator with proven courage, ability and experience. He will be found to be safe and sane and sound.

The Star is glad of the nomination of Woodrow Wilson, for in his election there will be a new era for popular government and a brighter future for the Republic of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson and Abraham Lincoln. We are proud because Dr. Wilson is a former Wilmingtonian, and because we have lived in two cities with him and his eminent father, the lamented Rev. Dr. Joseph R. Wilson, himself a great and good man, worthy to have a son who shall be the ideal President of one hundred millions of people.

MILLIONS FOR EARLY PEACHES

A round million for early peaches is the score for Georgia up to the last day of June. In less than four weeks a vast flood of money has been poured into the midst of a Southern community which used to wait from the first of January till the middle of November for cotton money. Here at the beginning of Summer, south Georgia is handling the coin and distributing wealth like eastern North Carolina when it markets its million-dollar strawberry crop and its four millions of early truck. However, let us give a chance to the Augusta Chronicle to unfold the tale for us:

"Before the shades of night had fallen on the last day of June, a thousand cars of Georgia peaches had been shipped out of the State, and it is related that the average price received therefor was $1,000 per car, just a thousand-thousand dollars, or in the vernacular of the day, as we really express it, 'a round million dollars.' To say the least of it, this is a pretty good showing for Georgia, and the money comes in at a time when a dollar is certainly worth a premium in the South. There are times in the career of man when he will give a hundred and some few cents for a dollar, and that is the case in Georgia when it comes to the Summer period.

"If Georgia's fruit crop exceeds 7,000 cars, it naturally follows that we will probably see at least that many millions brought into the State through this source. The great profit in growing peaches, and the money coming at the time of the year it does, makes the work one of the most desirable to be engaged in at this time. The opportunities that are presented to the people of Georgia in this respect, are illimitable, and yet we see a few orchards going to decay, and some are actually being cut down, but most of this was done before the present system of marketing was put into practice, and the orchards that have gone to decay were those that went under when peaches were not in such great demand. We are disposed to congratulate the peach growers of Georgia on the wonderful success attained by them during the past few years, and we fully expect and hope that they will make the same progress during the next decade, and more than that we hope that scores of Georgians throughout the country will engage in growing fruit."

It is a pretty story, and we can have the same kind to tell all around Wilmington when we add fruit growing to the other early money-getting crops for which eastern North Carolina is so ideally adapted. The climate is here, the soil is here, and the great markets are so close that we can despatch solid refrigerator trains from Wilmington to New York in from 18 to 24 hours.

Around Wilmington we have peach land in a latitude low enough to enable us to ship when Georgia peaches are moving. Mr. Thomas F. Bagley, who has a place on Bradley's Creek, near Wilmington, has been one of those who has demonstrated the ideality of this semi-tropical region for peach growing. He gathered from his orchard fine peaches on the 15th of May, and has done so about that date for several seasons. His trees are laden with fruit, and to say peach to him is to make him smile and manifest an enthusiasm that is unmistakable.

The Star wants to see this made a great peach-growing country, just like it is the finest strawberry region on the American continent. We want to see our fruit growing and our agriculture diversified in order to assure prosperity and plenty at all seasons. When we begin to grow peaches we can ship as long as prices are good and then we can preserve and can for the always ready market for the products of fruit canneries. More than that, we can eat peaches and live on peach pie without going broke by indulging in a dozen or two brought here from "way down in Georgia."

BIG CORPORATION FOR HARBOR CONSTRUCTION.

Great aggregations of capital for stupendous enterprises are still the vogue in this country, and huge corporations will continue to find a field of endeavor as long as they abide by the laws passed to protect the people from restraint of trade and monopoly.

There is not such a lack of confidence in the American people as one might suppose in view of the cry of alarmists, for right in the midst of a Presidential campaign capital goes ahead taking advantage of its fair opportunities. That was manifested a few days ago at Dover, Del., when the Continental Public Service Company was incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000,000.

This big corporation is authorized to do a general utility business, construct, maintain and operate railways, wharves, docks, piers, ferries, electric light and gas plants, and to acquire and hold real estate and secure franchises of all kinds. The capital stock is divided into $30,000,000 common and $20,000,000 preferred shares. The incorporators are E. E. McWhiney, William M. Maloney and Norman Coffin, all of Wilmington, Del.

No explicit statement of the big corporation's plans have been made, but one can infer that capital can see in the near future the largest kind of opportunities in harbor development. Ports which do not put in their own terminals are likely to see this huge corporation taking advantage of water front property for handling the great commerce that is to grow up rapidly at our South Atlantic ports.

It would be quite advantageous for the company to become a factor in port developments, but one can conceive the result if there are not municipal or public water terminals to control the freight situation. If such a company gets the most advantageous portions of deep water fronts ,where will public terminal propositions come in?

There is Chicago, Baltimore and Kilkenny.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The platform to be adopted at Baltimore should meet the approval of all the candidates. It is constructive rather than visionary.—Raleigh Times.

Anyway, it may be a lesson to Colonel Roosevelt not to know all about everything without taking the trouble to find out anything about it.—Hartford Times.

If the Murphy crowd was for anything or anybody to beat Wilson, as all accounts and all indications show, it behooves every one who disliked the Murphy crowd to see that Wilson should be none the worse off.—Charlotte Observer.

"That's the stuff!" exclaimed Governor Wilson, on learning that he had passed Clark in the balloting. Of course, Democrats could not think of nominating for President a man who talks over the heads of the crowd that way.—Columbia State.

That was a characteristic speech which Mr. Bryan made at Baltimore the first day, with pillars of fire and of cloud substituted for the crown of thorns and the cross of gold. But it didn't do any business. "The mill can never grind with the water that has passed."—Providence Tribune.

Scores of local Republicans have expressed their opinion to me regarding the result of the Chicago convention. All expressed the greatest indignation at the "steam roller" methods of the reactionaries. And only one of them said he would support Taft.—Shelby Highlander.

Lawyer John J. Gheen, of West Chester, one of the Roosevelt delegates who represented this district at the Chicago convention, is now being groomed to become a New Party candidate for Congress. With Thomas S. Butler, Eugene C. Bonniwell and John F. Gheen ready for the job of Congressman at Washington, it is probable that a sort of political Kilkenny fight may lend gayety this Fall.—Chester (Pa.) Republican.

MRS. G. W. LAKE DEAD

Well-Known In State, Passes Away In Boston, Mass.

Charlotte, N. C., July 2.—The Chronicle this afternoon says:

"Mrs. Joseph Russell Ross received a telegram this morning announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. George W. Lake, which occurred suddenly this morning at 4:30 o'clock at Hotel Brunswick, Boston, Mass.

"The news of Mrs. Lake's death comes as a great shock to her family and friends in this State as she was apparently in good health. No news of her illness further than that she died with heart failure is known. Only yesterday Mrs. Ross received a letter from her mother telling of her delightful visit to friends in Boston. Five weeks ago Mrs. Lake left Charlotte for her home in Washington after having spent some time visiting her daughters, Mrs. R. H. McDuffie, of Fayetteville, and Mrs. Ross, in this city. After stopping over in Washington for a few days she left for Boston. At the latter place she was joined a week ago by Mr. Lake and they had planned to leave in a day or two for Thousand Islands. Mr. Lake will leave Boston tonight with the remains for Fayetteville where the funeral will take place possibly Thursday.

"Mrs. Mary Bagley Lake was the only daughter of Henry B. and Mary Etta Bagley Short and was born in Williamston August 16th, 1854, and would therefore have been 58 years of age next month. Most of her life was spent at Lake Waccamaw. She was educated at St. Mary's School at Raleigh. Mrs. Lake was married to Duncan Cameron, of Hillsboro, and occurred at Lake Waccamaw, December 23rd, 1877. To this union three children were born, Mrs. Joseph Russell Ross, of this city; Mrs. R. H. McDuffie, of Fayetteville, and Miss Rebecca Cameron, who died about ten years ago. Mr. Cameron died at Hillsboro in November, 1886, and some years later Mrs. Cameron married Captain Robert Kirkland, of Hillsboro, who died in 1899. In December, 1901, she was married to Mr. George W. Lake, of Washington, who survives.

"Mrs. Lake was a member of one of the State's most prominent families and was a woman of refinement and culture, with strong intellect and splendid executive ability. She possessed an ease and charm of manner and a sincerity of purpose that made her friendship one to be desired. She gave liberally of her means and time to charitable institutions. Her death comes as a keen blow to her daughters and grandchildren upon whom she lavished affection.

"The deceased is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Ross and Mrs. McDuffie, and five grandchildren, Masters R. H. McDuffie, Jr., and Cameron McDuffie, of Fayetteville; Miss Mary Bagley Ross and Joseph R., Jr., and John B. Ross, of this city. A brother, Colonel Henry B. Short, died three years ago at Lake Waccamaw.

"Mr. and Mrs. Ross will leave for Fayetteville early Wednesday morning."

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

Democratic Senators Wire Wilson Their Congratulations.

Washington, July 2.—All the Democratic Senators on the floor upon the receipts of the news of Woodrow Wilson's nomination, joined in a congratulatory message to him. The message read:

"We congratulate you and the country upon the nomination. We are confident of your overwhelming victory."

CONSTIPATION IS A MENACE IN SUMMER

Regularity of Bowels Very Important to Health at This Time

At no time should people more closely watch the condition of their bowels than during hot weather. Summer conditions contribute in various ways to cause constipation, but whatever the cause the trouble should be quickly corrected; constipation, if neglected leads directly to serious, and often fatal disease.

Some people find that certain fruits have laxative effect, but this cannot be depended upon; a mild laxative tonic that will act gently and positively, without griping or shock to the system, is far preferable. The compound of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is highly recommended as being easy and natural in action, pleasant to the taste, and certain in its effect. A dose of Syrup Pepsin at night will restore normal action in the morning, carrying off the heaviness and bloat. Salts, purgative waters and cathartics should be avoided, as they upset the entire system and afford at best but temporary relief. By cleansing the bowels and removing the foreign matter that irritates and inflames the tissues, a spoonful of Syrup Pepsin will quickly check the Summer diarrhoea that is so weakening. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists for fifty cents a bottle, the larger, family size costing one dollar. A free trial bottle can be obtained, postpaid, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington street, Monticello, Illinois.

AVIATOR DIES OF INJURES

Three Other Professionals Hurt, But Expected to Recover

Altona, Prussia, July 1.—Benno Koenig, the German aviator, died today of injuries he sustained yesterday when he made a violent landing in a clump of bushes.

He was participating in the Northwest aviation circuit of 425 miles, which was resumed here yesterday, having been postponed on June 2 owing to the deaths of Albert Buchstaetter, one of the best known German aviators, and his passenger, Lieutenant Stille, of the German army, soon after the start.

Three other professional aviators taking part in the contest were injured by the falls yesterday. All, however, are expected to recover.

FUNERAL OF MR. EDW. BORDEN

Services Held Yesterday Afternoon From Grace Street Methodist Church—Building Was Crowded—Interment.

In the presence of a vast concourse of sorrowing friends and acquaintances, both from Wilmington and many other points in the South, the funeral of Mr. Edwin Borden, late general superintendent of transportation of the Atlantic Coast Line, whose death occurred at Clifton Springs, N. Y., Sunday, was observed with sad and impressive services at Grace Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Present in addition to hundreds of Wilmington friends were men high up in the official life of the Atlantic Coast Line from almost every city along the road. The board of stewards of Grace Methodist church, of which Mr. Borden was chairman at the time of his death, attended in a body, as did the board of trustees, of which he was also a member.

Rev. John C. Wooten, pastor of Grace Church, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. Tender and sympathetic was the message the sermon of the pastor bore, consoling the loved ones in their dark hour of grief and picturing the beauties of the greater life beyond, where the soul of the departed one would rest until the morning of the glad resurrection.

A quartette composed of Mr. Chas. Dushan, tenor; Mr. A. S. Holden, bass; Mrs. F. A. Muse, contralto, and Mrs. Geo. S. Boylan, soprano, rendered several beautiful selections during the services.

Upon conclusion of the ceremony at the church, the cortege made its way to Oakdale cemetery, where the services were concluded and the interment made. Masses of fragrant flowers, in innumerable handsome designs, covered the new grave, piled high on top of it and banked several deep all around. The designs came from all over the Coast Line system, almost every division and department of the great road sending a beautiful token of the grief that is felt over the loss of one who was more than an executive official of the road.

The pall-bearers were as follows: Honorary, Messrs. T. M. Emerson, J. R. Kenly, R. A. Brand, A. B. Pleasants, J. F. Post, W. J. Craig, Geo. B. Elliott, R. E. Smith, H. C. Prince, M. Riddle, W. H. Newell, Thos. D. Meares, Eugene S. Martin, W. E. Worth, Dr. G. G. Thomas and Dr. T. S. Burbank; active, Messrs. J. VanB. Metts, Van R. C. King, J. T. King, J. W. Perrin, F. H. Fechtig, Marcus Jacobi, Clarence D. Maffitt, C. E. Taylor.

Among the out-of-town railroad men present for the funeral were A. W. Anderson, general manager C. & W. C. Ry., Augusta; Thos. Wilson, president Northwestern Railroad of S. C., Sumter, S. C.; W. H. Newell, general superintendent A. C. L., Rocky Mount; J. N. Brand, general superintendent A. C. L. Savannah; M. Riddle, general superintendent A. C. L., Jacksonville, Fla.; W. B. Darrow, superintendent of transportation, Rocky Mount; E. R. Wotten, superintendent transportation, Savannah; O. H. Page, superintendent transportation, Jacksonville; E. H. Phenneger, superintendent, Richmond; B. J. Hughes, superintendent, Norfolk; C. L. Porter, superintendent, Rocky Mount; G. G. Lynch, superintendent, Florence, S. C.; R. B. Hare, superintendent, Florence; O. T. Waring, superintendent, Florence; J. C. Murchison, superintendent, Charleston; G. D. Pugh, superintendent, Savannah; J. C. Higgins, superintendent, Sanford, Fla.; E. P. Laird, engineer roadway, Rocky Mount; W. Q. Jeffords, general roadmaster, Florence; T. W. Slocumb, commercial agent, Goldsboro; S. P. Collier, Jr., general freight and passenger agent, Winston-Salem Southbound, Winston-Salem; T. E. Myers, traveling passenger agent, Charleston; W. A. Cale, terminal trainmaster, Florence; H. Woodruff, station master, Charleston union station, Charleston.

FIFTH STREET CHAMPIONS.

Methodist Lads Capture Pennant in Sunday School Race.

In two exciting and well played games the team representing the Fifth Street Methodist church in the Sunday School baseball league, yesterday won the beautiful pennant offered the winning team by Mr. W. L. Parsley, of the Hilton Lumber Company. The first game was featured by the all round playing of the Fifth Street boys and the batting of Hashagen for the Presbyterians. The score was 6 to 1.

The second game was as interesting, if not more so, than the first game, Farrar featuring in a beautiful one-hand stab at short. The final score was 1 to 0. This gives the Fifth Street lads the two best out of three post series games and closes what has been the most successful season yet attempted in Sunday School baseball circles.

Those who have been at the head of the league feel well repaid for their effort and desire to thank Mr. Parsely publicly for making the games possible for furnishing such an excellent diamond. Next season the league will be conducted on a larger scale and it is hoped that other diamonds will be available by that time.

Negro Woman Injured.

Minna Evans, a cook for Mr. C. D. Foard, at Wrightsville Beach, had a narrow escape from serious injury when she attempted to board the 7:15 suburban car for the city at Station 1 yesterday morning. It is said that the train had started when she attempted to get aboard. She seized the handrail at the platform, but missed the step. She retained her grasp on the hand rail until advised by a passenger on the car to drop to the ground, which she did, receiving a few bruises and contusions. The train was increasing in speed, and had she not turned loose when she did, she might have been seriously injured. She was brought to the city and given medical attention.

BUSY SESSION YESTERDAY

Number of Interesting Cases In Recorder's Court Yesterday—Negroes Sent to Farm and Roads—Other Matters

Yesterday's session of the Recorder's court was the busiest one of the week, quite a number of cases being disposed of and these ranging all the way from ordinary drunkenness to charges of burglary, with a scattering of vagrants, assaults with deadly weapons, etc., in between. Several road and farm sentences were imposed.

Della Cobb, Gertrude Pearsall and Allen Pearsall, a colored trio, were found guilty on a charge of running a disorderly house. The two women were given sentences of 60 days each on the county farm and Allen received a similar sentence on the county roads. James Newkirk was convicted on a charge of existing without work and was sent to the county roads for 30 days to reform. Joe Holmes, a colored woman, was found guilty of having assaulted Nina Nixon, another colored dame, with a beer bottle, and was sentenced to the county roads for 60 days.

Emanuel Pierce, colored, was given hearing on a charge of holding up and robbing J. W. Smith, colored, of $10 or $12 and probable cause being found was sent over to the Superior Court. In default of $500 bond he went to jail. The robbery is alleged to have occurred several years ago, at which time Pierce and several companions are alleged to have held Smith and extracted the money from his pockets. Pierce has been missing until a few days ago, when he was arrested on a charge of vagrancy.

James Reily, colored, was tried on a charge of housebreaking, but the case was changed to forcible trespass and was left open for judgment. The negro was charged with attempting to enter the house of Nellie Russel, at 1010 Chesnut street. He was captured by a number of young white men and was brought to the police station by them.

Judgment was pronounced in the cases against H. E. Beane and T. E. Koontz, two white men, who were involved in an affray with Robert Crosby, colored, on Market street, some time ago, when Crosby was knocked down by Beane after the negro had already knocked Koontz down. Crosby suffered a fractured skull and was sent to the James Walker Memorial Hospital. He recovered and has been out for some time. The cases were tried several weeks ago, Crosby being let off on payment of the costs and judgment withheld in the others. Yesterday Beane was fined $25 and costs and Koontz was taxed the costs.

A nol pros was taken in a case charging Walter Troutman, white, with the larceny of a lot of wearing apparel, the property of Burke H. Bridgers, Esq. The home of Mrs. P. L. Bridgers was broken into some time ago and a lot of clothing stolen. Several days afterwards the police ascertained that Troutman was endeavoring to sell some clothes that corresponded to the ones taken from the Bridgers home. They arrested him and he has been held since that time. However, they were unable to find the clothes he was alleged to have been trying to sell, and the State yesterday took a nol pros with leave.

Walter Guion, Alex Holmes and Tom Guion, colored, were charged with vagrancy. A nol pros with leave was taken in each case. John Covington, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and an assault with a deadly weapon, and Oscar Wortham, colored, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, were found not guilty. Wm. McRae, colored, charged with larceny by trick, was also found not guilty. One drunk was taxed $5 and costs.

POSTAL WAS FIRST

Flashed Nomination of Wilson to Admirers in Wilmington

The first news of the nomination of Governor Woodrow Wilson by the Baltimore convention reached Wilmington yesterday via the Postal Telegraph-Cable Co. The Postal was at least 15 minutes ahead of all other lines and The Star is under obligations to Manager Stansel for the first news of the result at Baltimore. Within a few minutes after the flash was received in the Postal offices on North Front street, Mr. Stansel 'phoned the news to The Star and it was immediately placed on the bulletin board and was greeted with enthusiastic applause by the large crowd gathered in the street in quest of the "latest from Baltimore."

Within 30 minutes after the announcement of the result over the Postal lines, The Star issued an extra giving as fully as possible the details of the result. These were for free distribution and were eagerly read by hundreds of people. Interest somewhat abated upon the nomination of a President, but there was still interest in the Vice Presidency last night when the convention re-assembled at 9 o'clock and an eager crowd scanned the bulletin board until a late hour.

Ausley Must Face Charge

Deputy Sheriff A. W. Moser, of Alamance county, arrived yesterday morning and last evening took back with him to Burlington Robert Ausley, a young white man, who was arrested at the Bellwill Cotton Mills here Monday on telegraphic advices from the sheriff of Alamance. He is wanted in Burlington on a charge of seduction.

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters gives her. ELECTRICAL MEN TO GATHER

Annual Meeting of the Order of Rejuvenated Sons of Jove at Wrightsville Beach This Week. Many Coming.

The annual meeting of the electrical men of North Carolina will be held at the Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, tomorrow, Friday and Saturday and on the latter day there will also be a rejuvenation of the "Sons of Jove." It is expected that there will be in attendance more than 200 electrical men from various parts of North Carolina and other States, and fully 100 candidates are to be initiated into the mysteries of the order of Rejuvenated Sons of Jove.

Mr. Nicholas Lewis Walker, of Raleigh, Statesman for North Carolina, is expected to arrive this morning and he and Mr. J. O. Brock, of this city, will then make the final arrangements for the meeting. Mr. Brock, the well known local electrical supply man, has been in charge of the arrangements locally and he has everything in shape except a few minor details which will be arranged today. Other members of the order are expected to come in today and by tomorrow it is thought that there will be fully 200 visiting electrical men at the Oceanic. There is every indication that this will be one of the biggest meetings that have ever been held by the order in North Carolina.

Mr. Brock said yesterday that there will be candidates for initiation here from five States, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Virginia, and there will also be visitors from Tennessee and Alabama. The order is composed of manufacturers of electrical devices and supplies, jobbers, salesmen, contractors and electricians.

The hour of the opening session is one of the things to be decided today. At the opening meeting an address of welcome will be made by Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern National Bank, of Wilmington, and other addresses at this session will be made by Mr. D. H. Braymer, editor of the Southern Electrician, Atlanta; Mr. Julied Binford, Jr., of Richmond, Past Statesman of Virginia, and others whose names will be announced as soon as the details of the programme are completed.

One of the features of the gathering will be a "clam bake" which will probably be served Friday night, following the evening session. This will be a rare treat for the visitors, especially for the landlubbers.

COMPROMISE WAS EFFECTED

Suit of Knickerbocker Trust Company Against Mr. W. E. Worth and Counter Action Have Been Settled

The case in the United States Court of the Knickerbocker Trust Company against Wm. E. Worth and a counter action brought by Mr. Worth in the State courts, both growing out of the failure of the Rockingham Power Company a few years ago, have been adjusted by compromise, according to an announcement made yesterday by attorneys in the case. It has been one of the hardest fought actions ever brought in New Hanover county and promised to remain in the courts for an indefinite period, there being so many different phases of the controversy.

Mr. Worth contracted for stock in the Rockingham Power Company, which was financed by the Knickerbacker Trust Company, of New York, and which was organized for the purpose of developing Blewitt's Falls. The amount of stock contracted for was $45,000 and Mr. Worth had paid $9,000 of this sum, when the company failed. He started suit in the State court to recover the $9,000 paid on the subscription, alleging fraud. In the meantime the Knickerbocker Trust Company, Hugh MacRae & Co., et al., brought action in the Federal Court against Mr. Worth for balance alleged to be due for stock subscribed for by him in the company. The case in Federal Court was tried some months ago and judgment was given against Mr. Worth for thirty-odd thousand dollars with interest. The Circuit of Appeals upheld the lower court. States Court and property of Mr. Worth was levied upon, but has never been sold. The action in the State court has never been tried.

It is said that the Knickerbocker Trust Company approached Mr. Worth's representatives for a compromise. While it is not known how much Mr. Worth agrees to pay the Knickerbocker Trust Company, under the terms of the compromise, yet it is said upon pretty good authority that the amount is less than 20 per cent of the amount of the judgment obtained against Mr. Worth.

Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Hon. John D. Bellamy represent Mr. Worth. Thos. W. Davis, Esq., was the local attorney for the Knickerbocker Trust Company.

MRS. JENNIE HARDISON DEAD

Passed Away at Home at Sloop Point Yesterday Morning

Friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Jennie Hardison, widow of the late Mr. Samuel J. Hardison, of Sloop Point, which occurred at that place yesterday morning at 3 o'clock, following an illness of about four months. The deceased was 37 years of age and is survived by four children, two brothers, one sister and her mother, all of Sloop Point, who will have the sympathy of friends in their bereavement.

The funeral will be held this morning at 10 o'clock from the family residence at Sloop Point and interment will be made in the family burying ground near that place.

FIRST PASSENGER TRAIN RUN

Regular Schedule Over W., B. & S., Was Inaugurated Yesterday—Officials of Road Made Initial Trip — Well Pleased

The regular passenger schedule over the Wilmington, Brunswick & Southern Railroad was inaugurated yesterday under the most favorable circumstances, the first train arriving here at 8:30 A. M., on schedule time, having left Southport at 6:15. No mishap of any kind occurred and the train made the run easily, with time to spare. On the return trip the train left this city at 3:15 o'clock, arriving at Southport at 5 P. M.

On board the first regular passenger train were Mr. M. J. Corbett, president of the W., B. & S., Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, vice president; Mr. M. W. Divine and Mr. J. W. Brooks, of the board of directors; Mr. H. E. Godwin, traffic manager; several members of the Board of Aldermen of Southport; many interested citizens from that place, and others from intermediate points along the line. The train was in charge of Conductor J. D. Bateman and Engineer W. J. Tate, who will constitute the regular crew.

Quite a number of citizens boarded the train at Southport yesterday morning, as well as a number from other points in the lower part of Brunswick county. Some made the trip for the novelty of riding over the road on the first regular passenger train, while others combined pleasure and business. At almost every station along the line other passengers boarded the train and at several of the stations large crowds of cheering spectators had assembled to witness the event that will mean so much to the development of the county and town.

One interesting passenger was Mr. Wm. Phelphs, of Shallotte, who is 75 years of age, and who had never before ridden on a train. Mr. Phelphs is a remarkably active man for his age, both physically and mentally. He was delighted with the trip and expressed himself as being certain that the inauguration of a daily schedule over the W., B. & S., will mean big things for Brunswick county. He expressed the hope that the road would soon be extended through Shallotte to Little River, S. C.

The officials of the road were highly pleased with the first trip and they are delighted with the outlook for business, both as for the success of the road and as regards the benefits and advantages that will accrue to Wilmington from the new back country which it opens up.

The run yesterday was made easily, and with time to spare, thanks to the excellent condition of the road bed, and it has been decided to shorten the schedule after this week. The train will leave Southport from 15 to 30 minutes later than it does now and arrive here at the present time.

It is the intention of the company, as soon as the machinery of this division is working smoothly and satisfactory, to start work laying the track from Southport on south through Lockwood's Folly, Shallotte and to Little River, S. C. This route has already been surveyed and it is hoped to have trains running over that part also in the near future.

The prospects for the Wilmington, Brunswick & Southern are very bright and Wilmington and Southport will join heartily in wishing the men who have made the road possible every measure of success in their venture.

SETTLEMENT IN SIGHT.

Adjustment of the Sewerage Controversy Seems Likely.

As stated in The Star last week, negotiations have been re-opened for the purchase by the city of Wilmington of the existing sewerage plant from the Wilmington Sewerage Company with a strong probability that the result will be the ending of a long controversy by the municipality taking over the plant. The re-opening of the negotiations came most probably as a result of the Council's expressed purpose of going ahead with plans for sewering the northern, eastern and southern sections of the city independent of the existing sewerage plant, which, it was pointed out, could continue to take care of the central part of the city.

Nothing definite has as yet been done, but it is understood that representatives of the city and the sewerage company have agreed upon $130,000 as being a fair price for the plant. The city is to pay $30,000 in cash when the plant is turned over to the municipality and the remainder is to be paid in 10 annual installments of $10,000 each. It is stated that all that remains now to be done is for the bondholders' committee to sign the agreements. The question may be brought up at the regular meeting of the City Council this morning.

FUNERAL OF MRS. E. A. COOK

Services Held Yesterday Afternoon From Family Residence

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Cook, whose death occurred Monday morning, was held from the family residence, No. 106 Castle street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of sorrowing friends and acquaintances. Rev. J. S. Crowfield, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a devoted member, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist church.

Interment was made in Bellevue cemetery, where the grave was covered with a number of handsome floral designs and clusters of flowers, attesting the sorrow that is felt at the passing of this good woman. The pall bearers were Messrs. Jas. F. Mann, C. R. Spooner, Dawson Barnes, H. W. Howell, Chas. W. Stewart, F. R. Mallard.

Funeral of Little Child

The funeral of W. D. McCaig, Jr., the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McCaig, whose death occurred Monday afternoon, was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from the family residence, No. 608 Dock street. Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Interment was in Oakdale cemetery.

Taken to Lumberton

Walter Marine, a young white man of this city, who was arrested Saturday night on a warrant from a magistrate at Lumberton, charging him with false pretense, was taken to that place yesterday afternoon by a deputy sheriff from Robeson county, who came down to get the young man. It is alleged that Marine secured goods at a store there and had them charged to some other person. He denies that he is guilty and declares that he will be able to clear himself of the charge.

Report of Attempted Suicide.

Report was made at the police station last evening that a white man named Hudson had attempted to commit suicide yesterday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock at the Masonboro crossing on the suburban car line to the beach, but that he did not injure himself to any great extent, and that he came back to the city on a car a short while later. It was reported that the man stabbed himself slightly under the throat, but that the wound was not a serious one. He was also said to have been heard to threaten the life of some other person. The police could not learn any details of the matter.

Miss Helen Pleasants' Sunday School class of the Church of the Good Shepherd enjoyed a delightful picnic yesterday at Smith's Landing on Masonboro Sound. Six couples, chaperoned by Miss Pleasants, left the city at 9 o'clock and the entire day was spent at the sound. The time passed most pleasantly. One of the most enjoyable features of the day was the picnic dinner. The party returned to the city at 7:30.

Mrs. W. R. Nixon's Sunday School class of the Brooklyn Baptist Sunday School entertained the Junior Baracas of the school at the home of Miss McDougall, No. 314 Walnut street, last evening. A large company of young people was present and all had a most enjoyable time. Games were enjoyed until 9:30, when delicious refreshments were served. The young people left for their homes at 10 o'clock, feeling that a most enjoyable evening had been spent.

Little Miss Lucile, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bradshaw, entertained a number of her little friends yesterday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the home of her parents, at Fourth and Campbell streets, the occasion being the sixth anniversary of her birth. After many games had been played the guests were ushered into the dining room, where ice cream and fruits of many kinds were served. The little ones voted many thanks to their hostess and wished her many happy returns of the day. The presents were numerous and handsome.

MISS WRIGHT ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF HOUSE GUESTS

Miss Sallie Wright entertained very charmingly last evening at a progressive dinner party in honor of her house guests, Misses Harriet and Dorothy Duncan, of Pelham Manor, N. Y.; Miss Lucy Minor, of Asheville, and Miss Patty Woods, of Baltimore. There were nine tables with four guests at each table. The color scheme was yellow and pink and the guests wore bouquets and boutonniers of lilies of the valley. The evening was a most enjoyable one and the guests took their departures with reluctant adieus. Among the invited guests were: Misses Marie and Katie Grainger, May Carmichael, Christine Stevenson, Lauristin Hardin, Bessie Bridgers, Florence and Elise Kidder, Helen Strange, Sue Prince, Jennie Murchison, and Lina deRosset, and Messrs. Stowe Crouse, of Asheville; Allen Emerson, Ed Bailey, Jno. Murchison, Louis T. Moore, Geo. Kidder, Adair McKoy, Rob Calder, Arthur Williams, Harold Boatwright, Brownie McKoy, Spencer Nichols, Will Denny, Geo. Carmichael, Isaac Grainger, Charley Hill, Hugh Calder and Lee Pender.

ANNUAL BRIGADE OUTING

Members Looking Forward to Encampment at Southport

Final arrangements have been completed for the annual encampment of the Boys' Brigade at Southport, and the members of the organization are enthusiastic over the anticipated pleasures that they will enjoy on the outing. Owing to the largely increased membership of the Brigade the encampment this year will be conducted in two parts. The first relay will be composed of the members of Company C, who will remain from July 11th to 18th, inclusive, and the second will be composed of members of Companies A and B. They will go down on July 19th and remain through the 27th.

The Juniors will be in charge of Mr. Chas. D. Dushan and Captain Alonzo Burriss, while the other two companies will be under the direct command of Col. Walker Taylor, founder of the Brigade, who will spend the entire time in camp with the lads.

It is expected that about 100 members will go into camp this year. The boys will enjoy fishing, swimming, boating, athletics and several social features, to say nothing of the splendid appetites and the long hours of healthy sleep, and all will no doubt return much refreshed and strengthened.

Capt. John W. Harper, of the steamer Wilmington, is one of the best friends of the Brigade, and he shows it in a practical manner whenever the opportunity presents itself. He offers free transportation for the boys of the Brigade and their baggage and freight during the entire time of the encampment. Other friends of the organization assist by furnishing all supplies at cost prices, all of which is greatly appreciated by the lads. Mr. J. A. Price will again have charge of the commissary, which assures the boys of a splendid menu, both as to quantity and quality.

WILL BE INDEPENDENCE DAY

No Formal Celebration in Wilmington, But Day Will be Generally Observed—Crowds Will Go to the Beaches.

While there will be no formal celebration or patriotic demonstration, tomorrow, July 4th, the anniversary of the birth of the Nation, will be pretty generally observed in Wilmington and this section as a holiday. As usual, thousands will flock to the beaches, both Wrightsville and Carolina claiming a large number of pleasure seekers. The banks and public offices will be closed and the postoffice will observe holiday hours.

The principal attraction at Wrightsville Beach, aside from the salt breezes and surf bathing, will be the annual mid-Summer athletic and aquatic meet conducted under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. This will take place in front of Lumina and begins at 3 P. M. There are a large number of events and in each there are a number of contestants. Several thousand people are expected to witness the contests.

As usual, hundreds will go to Wrightsville or Carolina early in the morning and spend the day enjoying the salt breezes, surf bathing and the other attractions of the resorts. Many of them will take their lunches, while others will go to the hotels, boarding houses or restaurants at the resorts for their mid-day meal. The hotels at Wrightsville Beach have made special preparations to care for the large crowds tomorrow. The beach hotels are more popular this year than ever with Wilmington people and there is no doubt but that the number who will have dinner at one of the three hotels tomorrow will be greatly in excess of the number on the Fourth of July last year. The Oceanic, Seashore and Hanover have all made ample preparations for the day.

Many will observe the day with a trip down the historic Cape Fear with a stop at Carolina Beach or Southport. The steamer Wilmington, Capt. John W. Harper, will make her usual Sunday schedule to Carolina Beach and Southport, leaving the city at 9 A. M. 2:30 and 7:30 P. M. The last boat will be run to Carolina Beach, returning to the city about midnight. Carolina Beach offers a most delightful spot to spend a Fourth of July outing and there are hundreds who always go there on that day. This year the number will probably be increased.

Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, the popular manager of the Seashore Hotel, has arranged a most tempting menu for the Fourth of July dinner at his widely known and largely patronized hotel. He expects even a larger number than usual for dinner tomorrow. The hotels at the beach are more popular with the Wilmington people than ever before in the history of the resort and in addition to the regular guests at the hotel and those who will come in from the surrounding towns to spend the Fourth, it is expected that 100 or more Wilmingtonians will make the Seashore their headquarters. The menu is printed on paper doilies under a cut of the Seashore Hotel building, while to the right in colors is a United States flag and an American eagle. These will be given as souvenirs of the dinner. It is a most original and novel idea of Capt. Hinton and the souvenirs will doubtless be in great demand by the diners. The menu is given below. Names of Revolutionary times are given the various dishes:

Soup
Pure a la Paul Revere
Relishes
General Green Olives
Yorktown Cucumbers
Fish
Baked Plymouth Rock, with Lexington Sauce Potatoes, Bunker Hill
Boiled North Carolina Ham, a la Mecklenburg
Entrees
Fried Spring Chicken, Maryland style
Calf Brains a la George the Fourth
Macaroni Independence
Apple Fritters, Virginia Sauce
Roasts
Prime Ribs of Beef, Valley Forge,
Roast Down South Lamb
Old Glory Sauce
Sliced Alama Tomatoes
Vegetables
American Peas, Long Island New Potatoes
South Carolina Rice, Tennessee Corn on Cob.
Pennsylvania Asparagus Tips. ...
Dessert
Columbia Ice Cream, New Orleans Pie
Dixie Jumble
United States Cakes, Colonial Peaches
Georgia Watermelons
(Saltine) Crackers.
Young American Cheese
Tea Coffee
Hail Columbia.

Death of Little Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hocutt will have the sympathy of many friends in the loss of their little adopted daughter, Ethel Louise, aged five months, which occurred at the family residence, No. 411 Brunswick street, yesterday morning at 10:40 o'clock. The funeral will be held from the residence this morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. W. L. Rexford, pastor of Bladen Street Methodist church, will conduct the services. Interment will be made in Bellevue cemetery.

Seniors Won From Fiddlers

In a rather one-sided game the Seniors trimmed the Sandfiddlers to the tune of 12 to 7 last night at the Y. M. C. A. The first innings were a splendid exhibition of this popular game, but the losing team was unfortunate in having its pitcher injured to such an extent that further snappy work was impossible and the game went easily to the Seniors.

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Miss Priscilla Iverson Patton, an attractive young lady of Atlanta, Ga., is spending some time at the Seashore Hotel.

Mr. H. W. Carroll, of Bennettsville, S. C., arrived yesterday to join his wife, who has been spending some time at the Seashore Hotel.

Monday's Rocky Mount Telegram: "Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Divine and children left on the morning train today for Wrightsville Beach to spend the month."

Miss Floy Sharp, of Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Belle Moncure, of Raleigh, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, of Goldsboro, are among the recent arrivals at Mrs. B. R. Dunn's cottage, "The Patch."

Miss Rosalie Davis, of Atlanta, Ga., one of the most popular visitors at the beach, has recovered from a severe attack of tonsilitis, her many friends will be glad to learn. Miss Davis and her sisters, Mrs. Hudson Moore and Mrs. Anderson, are guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Charlotte Chronicle, Monday: "Misses Violet and Julia Alexander returned home Saturday night from Wrightsville Beach, where they have been for the past ten days. They returned sooner than they had intended on account of the arrival here of their brother, Dr. Emory Alexander, of Philadelphia."

Among yesterday's arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel were: Mrs. D. H. Shea, governess and children, New York city; Edw. E. Johnston, Washington, D. C.; T. B. Apperson, ...nston, N. C.; A. L. Mull, Richmond, Va.; D. T. Cronly, Columbia, S. C.; D. M. O'Driscoll, Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. Morris A. Hart and Miss Leona E. Lazarus, Macon, Ga.

Mrs. Lelia Green Davis and her attractive daughters, Misses Eleanor Green, Mary Ruffin Green and Florence Green, and little Miss Lelia Green Davis, of Durham, have arrived to spend the remainder of the Summer at the Oceanic Hotel. They have visited the beach every season for the past several years and are very popular with the beach visitors and residents and also have many friends in Wilmington.

The arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday included Luke Seawell, Memphis; W. L. McDonald, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins Cogler and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Sturdevant, Greenville, S. C.; J. W. Mitchell, Atlanta; W. B. Fincher, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Harper, Florence, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Land and five children and nurses, Hamlet, and Miss Ida Morrison, Rockingham; W. M. Cox, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs C. E. Weatherly and children, Faison; Mrs. C. A. Murphy and Miss Maggie Murphy, Burgaw.

Manager Warren H. Williams, of the Hanover Inn, is not a superstitious man. This popular little hotel was opened on May 13th, with 13 guests. By a happy coincidence it was the fourth birthday of his little daughter, Valyne. No unpleasant forebodings were anticipated, however. Mr. J. M. Jamison, the hotel man of Charlotte, who was killed in an automobile wreck last week, was one of the 13 to register on the opening day. Mr. Williams is convinced that No. 13 is lucky, so far as the hotel is concerned for the hostelry has done a splendid business ever since it opened.

Roosevelt Says Baltimore Convention Won't Change Plans

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 2.—"I shall of course, continue to stand for the progressive nomination," said Colonel Roosevelt tonight after he heard of the nomination of Woodrow Wilson.

The former President stated his belief that events in the Democratic as well as the Republican convention demonstrated the necessity of a primary.

The National convention of the new party will be held in Chicago, it was decided today, probably during the first week of August.

"To my mind, what has gone on in Baltimore for the past 10 days has shown the utterly irreconcilable nature of the elements within the Democratic party, elements so irreconcilable as to make it hopeless to expect from them any permanent reform movement along constructive lines," said Colonel Roosevelt.

Under the circumstances, Colonel Roosevelt said he felt that the events at Baltimore and Chicago proved the absolute need of a new party.

The Colonel spent the day in New York in conference with Senator Dixon, of Montana, his campaign manager, before the Chicago convention; Frank A. Munsey, of New York; Charles H. Thompson, of Vermont, and Bainbridge Colby, of New York, making plans for the new party. He said that the call for the National convention was drafted today and was virtually ready. It will be submitted by telegraph to members of the temporary committee on organization and if ratified will be given out in New York probably on Thursday, the fourth of July.

BACK FROM CONVENTION.

Mr. W. P. M. Turner Speaks Interestingly of Baltimore Gathering.

Mr. W. P. M. Turner, who represented The Star at the great Democratic National Convention at Baltimore and whose special reports of the proceedings have been read and appreciated by the hundreds of readers of the paper, returned last night and gives a graphic description of the meeting. Mr. Turner's news and views of the convention turned out remarkably correct and he is being congratulated by his friends upon the excellent forecasts which he made during the progress of the great gathering. He was naturally very tired and worn out with the grind of the convention, but was an anxious inquirer after the news as to the Vice Presidency last night.

—Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the services held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., at the A. C. L. shops today at noon.

—Among the arrivals yesterday at The Southern Hotel were Guy Tripp, Durham; J. B. Moore, Burgaw; E. Sellers, Atkinson; J. W. Pharr, Charlotte; C. I. Robinson, L. Q. Meyers, Edwin Ebert, Burgaw; J. T. Culbreth, Scott's Hill; M. H. Pridgen, Currie; Mrs. Allen, Kelley; C. C. Eason.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The regular weekly meeting of the City Council will be held this morning at 9:15 o'clock.

—Abraham Katz, white, was given hearing before Justice Sykes yesterday on a charge of an assault on Della Wortham, colored, and probable cause being found was sent over to the Recorder for trial. He gave $25 bond for his appearance this morning.

—Zeb Moseley, an aged colored man, who lives near Wrightsboro, was taken into custody late yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Cowan and lodged in the county jail, pending inquiry as to his sanity. Sheriff Cowan was accompanied by Deputy Sheriffs Kelly and Davis.

HARMON WON'T TALK.

However, He Sends Wilson Congratulatory Telegram.

Columbus, O., July 2.—After being informed that Governor Wodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, had been nominated for the Presidency, Governor Judson Harmon sent the successful candidate a telegram congratulating him. When asked what he thought of the election of Governor Wilson, Governor Harmon said: "I do not care to say anything about it now. You can say I am pleased with the support accorded me by my boys."

Akron, O., July 2.—Frank A. Seiberling, president of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., who was financing Vaniman in his attempt to fly across the Atlantic ocean, had not heard of the explosion of the Akron until informed by the Associated Press this morning. Mr. Seiberling was astounded at the startling news. He then hurried to a telephone in an attempt to get into communication with Atlantic City. Mr. Seiberling will probably leave for Atlantic City at once.

Pretty Mothers

Health is the foundation of all good looks. The wise woman realizes this and takes precautions to preserve her health and strength through the period of child bearing. She remains a pretty mother by avoiding as far as possible the suffering and dangers of such occasions. This every woman may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information.

LIGHT OFFERINGS OF COTTON

General Firmness Resulted Throughout the Session—Prices Were Some Higher and the Close Was Steady.

New York, July 2.—An absence of offerings was again a feature of the cotton market today. In connection with further gains in the Eastern belt and moderate commission house buying of new crop months, it resulted in general firmness throughout the session, prices at one time being 6 to 8 points net higher, with the close steady at a net advance of 3 to 6 points.

The market opened steady, August 2 points lower and the balance unchanged to 3 points higher, influenced in part by a private report of 81.9, and also by excessive rains in the Atlantic States. The weekly weather report proved to be rather unsatisfactory, confirming the private advices about unfavorable conditions east of the Mississippi. In addition to abnormal precipitation, the nights have also been too cool for the proper development of the crop. Advices from Texas, however, continued bearish, the forecast indicating unsettled weather and showers in the Western belt relieving the recent dry spell. A local trade paper was out with a condition of 81.3, while 43 members of the New York cotton exchange estimated the government report would be around 82.5. It was the impression in many quarters that a condition of 82 tomorrow would be considered about a standoff. A big spot demand was reported here and South, premiums being among the highest on record. Liverpool was disappointing, early, in face of large sales, but recovered. The South was a moderate buyer of new crops during the forenoon, presumably on the adverse weather outlook in the Eastern belt.

Receipts, 3,311, against 3,774 last week, and 957 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston, 1,119, against 504 last year, at New Orleans, 1,098, against 145 last year, and at Houston 189, against 125 last year.

Spot closed quiet. Middling uplands, 11.65; do. gulf, 11.90; sales, 43 bales.

Cotton futures closed steady.

Mail Carriers Will Fly.

This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions, transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them. That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs, colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It cured me of a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stickney Corner, Me., "after doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." For coughs, colds or any bronchial affection it's unequaled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at R. R. Bellamy.

STOCKS MAKE FURTHER GAINS

Movement Has More Snap and Breadth Thon for Several days—Industrials Very Active—Tobacco Stocks React

New York, July 2.—Stock made further upward progress today, the early movement having more snap and breadth than any of recent date. A very considerable part of the trading was in the Industrials, United States Steel resuming its old-time leadership at a smart advance. Tobacco stocks were inclined to react after their phenomenal gains of the past few weeks.

As the session wore on, standard shares participated in the general rise, with gains most marked in Reading, Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Chesapeake & Ohio and Missouri Pacific. Profit-taking later wiped out most of these advances and business came to a standstill, but the market's strong undertone was maintained up to the last hour, when some heaviness followed the news from Baltimore. The close was irregular. A local feature of interests was the heavy drain of the local banks to the sub-treasury resulting largely from payments to the government incident to the close of the fiscal year. The loss thus far this week exceeds $13,000,000, and probably will increase, despite receipts from the interior.

There was a better demand for long-time money, but no appreciable change of rates.

Bonds were irregular, except the traction issues. Total sales, par value, amounted to $3,247,000. United States governments were unchanged on call. Total sales today, 417,400 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, July 2.—Sentiment turned overwhelmingly bearish today regarding wheat. The basis was the general rainfall covering the Spring wheat crop country last night and this morning. Closing prices were easy, ¼@¾c. to ⅝c. net lower. The decline extended to each of the other pits, corn finishing ½ to ¼@⅝c. down, oats off ⅝@1⅛, and provisions less costly by 2½ to 10 cents.

STRENGTH OF NIAGARA.

Five Million Horse Power as Measured by Army Engineers.

New York, July 2.—United States army engineers, in a recent report on Niagara Falls, estimate the force of the cataract at 5,000,000 horse power, or 150,000,000 man power. If one undertook to develop this energy for only a single day by hiring men at $2 each, it would cost $300,000,000, or enough to build another Panama canal. Besides that, it would be necessary to scour the world for laborers, as the total able-bodied male population of the United States is only about a tenth of the working force that would be required.

Yet it cannot be said that the country is wasting the cost of the Panama canal every day at Niagara. It is estimated that a million visitors derive pleasure and inspiration from the great masterpiece of Nature every year, while electrical generating plants have been established which are developing almost 500,000 horse power from the falling flood. This amount will probably be increased eventually by about half as much again, but it cannot materially exceed that, because the United States and Great Britain recently negotiated a treaty limiting water diversion on either side to an amount which, according to the findings of government engineers, will not impair the falls as a spectacle.

The treaty is not yet fully operative in this country, but will probably become so upon the expiration of existing legislation next Spring. The new arrangement will allow use of an additional 4,400 cubic feet of water a second on the American side, and further benefit industry in this country by permitting unrestricted importation of electric power from Canada.

To "CAPITOL" or "WHITEHOUSE"—without a dissenting vote—a million men give their highest approval.

The style is the smart close-front, with plenty of room to show the tie.

"Capitol" and "Whitehouse" give you a big percentage of extra wear. They are reversible—"both sides right sides." These collars have "Easy-Tie-Slide" space too. Ask for the campaign and would have no regrets.

Underwood's Name Withdrawn.

"He and his friends," said Senator Bankhead, "stand ready to support the candidate and the platform of his party."

Senator Bankhead said Mr. Underwood would stay in the House and perform his "great duties there without complaint."

"How about Vice President?" called a delegate.

"Vice President, no," shouted Bankhead. "Do not take him from his present post if you cannot delegate him to the highest office in the land. Vice President, no. Anybody can sit in the Vice President's chair. Even I, humble as I am, could sit there and say: 'The gentleman from New York moves that we now adjourn.' It would be a crime to take him from his present duties and I hope no one will present his name to this convention."

Senator Bankhead's action in withdrawing Mr. Underwood aroused the ire of the Missouri delegation and toward the end of his remarks, he was constantly interrupted.

"Why didn't you withdraw him when Clark had a chance?" demanded one of the Missourians.

Senator Bankhead paid no heed.

"Why don't you tell them you are faking?" shouted the delegate.

The interruptions were greeted with hisses.

Senator Bankhead concluded briefly with the statement that at Mr. Underwood's request he withdrew his name from further consideration, leaving his delegates free to vote for whom they chose.

When Senator Bankhead concluded, Senator Stone, of Missouri, went to the platform, and asked unanimous consent to be allowed to make a statement.

Clark Delegates Released.

"Speaking for Speaker Clark," said Senator Stone, "I will release—if release be necessary—any delegation instructed for him. I would not have a single delegation stay with him for a single roll call under any sense of obligation to him.

"I need not tell this convention or the friends of others than Champ Clark that he will stand by the nominee of this convention loyally to the end."

Foss' Name Withdrawn.

When Senator Stone finished, Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, mounted the platform. He withdrew the name of Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, and announced that the Massachusetts delegation would vote for Wilson.

Uproar greeted this announcement for the nomination of Wilson had now become a practical certainty.

When the disorder subsided Representative Fitzgerald, who had just finished a conference with Murphy, took the stage. His advent marked the end of the opposition to Wilson as an organized body.

Fitzgerald made a plea for harmony. "We want to leave this hall a united Democracy, with victory in November assured."

In conclusion he said: "I move that the roll call be dispensed with and that the convention proceed by acclamation to nominate that distinguished Democrat of New Jersey, Governor Woodrow Wilson."

The weary delegates stood on their chairs and shouted wildly. Missouri, and New York alone sat unmoved throughout the demonstration.

Convention Wild With Joy.

Wilson adherents dashed about the hall, shaking hands, hugging each other and almost dancing with glee. The aisles were jammed and the sergeant-at-arms and the police fought in vain to quiet the throng.

The stolid mass of men who had sat through ballot after ballot until they had almost gone into a stupor of routine, greeted the relief with an outburst of jubilation and became as noisy and mischievous as a crowd of school boys. It took 15 minutes to quiet them.

Finally Chairman James announced that the plan proposed by Representative Fitzgerald to nominate by acclamation could be carried only by unanimous consent.

Senator Reed, of Missouri took the platform to object to this scheme.

Missouri for Clark to the End.

"Without the slightest desire to express any sentiment or rancor, I object, because, Missouri wants to be recorded on this ballot for old Champ Clark," he said, and the Clark forces cheered.

F. H. McCullough, of Missouri, asked and received permission to make a brief statement. He said the people of Missouri "loved old Champ Clark."

The regular order was demanded and the 46th and final roll call of the States was begun at 2:53 P. M.

"Alabama, 24 votes for Wilson," called out the chairman of that delegation.

"Arizona, six for Woodrow Wilson."

"Arkansas, 18 for Woodrow Wilson."

It was difficult for the clerk to proceed on account of the applause that greeted each response.

When California was reached Theodore A. Bell, chairman of that delegation, which had been one of Clark's bulwarks, made his way to the stage.

California Passed.

A. Mitchell Palmer and several other leaders of the Wilson forces met Bell as he reached the platform and endeavored to dissuade him from speaking. An argument ensued, California was passed and Bell left the platform.

Colorado gave all her 12 to Wilson and Connecticut did likewise with her 14. Delaware, always consistently in the Wilson column, cast her votes there again amid applause.

Florida voted seven for Wilson, and five for Clark. Underwood's 28 in Georgia went to Wilson. A cheer greeted Illinois' solid 58 as it was cast for the New Jersey Governor. Indiana, Iowa, and Kansas also supported Wilson without a dissenting vote.

Louisiana gave Clark 2 of her 20 votes. Maine's 12 were cast in a block for Wilson. Maryland's 16 and Massachusett's 36 were likewise given to Wilson. Michigan's 30 climbed into the band wagon beside the 24 from Minnesota who had seats from the beginning. Underwood's 20 in Mississippi were announced for Wilson by Governor Brewer.

Still Voting for Clark.

When Missouri was called Senator Stone announced: "Missouri casts 36 votes for Champ Clark."

The Missourians cheered and they received a general round of applause.

Montana and Nebraska went solidly for Wilson and all of Nevada's vote was cast for Clark, followed by New Hampshire, which gave eight to Wilson. The four Clark votes in New Jersey remained firm and the vote of the State was recorded Wilson 24; Clark 4.

New Mexico gave Wilson its eight votes.

N. Y. and N. C. Solid for Wilson.

Another outburst occurred when Charles F. Murphy rose in his place to announce: "New York casts 90 votes for Woodrow Wilson."

North Carolina gave Wilson its full 24. North Dakota's 10 got into line. Then Ohio was reached and Ed H. Moore, of the Harmon forces, took the stand to release the Ohio delegates from any obligation to support Harmon. Ohio was passed.

Oklahoma's delegation, so long divided 10 and 10, cast its entire 20 for Wilson. Oregon's 10 and Pennsylvania's 76 remained in their accustomed place behind Wilson. Rhode Island's 10 came into line. South Carolina voted its 18 for Wilson. South Dakota gave Wilson ten. The badly split Tennessee delegation for the first time in the convention gave its 24 votes for Wilson.

When Texas was called, a little girl, Frances Ball, was lifted to the top of a chair to cast the State's vote. She was cheered as she chirped: "Texas votes 40 for Wilson."

Washington for Wilson.

Utah, Vermont and Virginia went to Wilson. Then Washington, which had stood solidly for Clark, was reached. "We have stayed by Clark until he went down to defeat," announced the Washington chairman, "and we'll stay by Wilson to victory."

West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming, Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico supported Wilson, but the six votes from the District of Columbia stayed with Clark to the end.

California, which had been passed, was called and Theodore A. Bell asked unanimous consent to make a brief statement. No objection was made. Thereupon Bell rose to explain his vote and finally secured quiet. He went to the platform.

Clark Gets California.

Bell said he would support Wilson. He announced his intention of moving to make Wilson's nomination unanimous. But he announced the vote of California as Clark 24; Wilson 2.

Ohio was the last State to vote and she gave Clark 1; Harmon 12; Wilson 33.

The total vote for Wilson was 990. Clark received 84 and Harmon 12. Two were absent.

Nomination Made Unanimous.

Before the result of the 46th ballot was announced Senator Stone, of Missouri, moved to make the nomination of Woodrow Wilson unanimous. As Chairman James put the motion a chorus of "ayes" broke all over the hall.

"The ayes have it," said Mr. James, "and I declare Woodrow Wilson the nominee of this convention."

The demonstration began at once. Soon the aisles were choked with a struggling mass of delegates, shaking hands and greeting friends and enemies with the slogan: "We'll win with Wilson."

For 10 minutes James labored to restore order. When order was restored A. Mitchell Palmer took the stand and moved that the convention adjourn until 9 o'clock tonight. At 3:40 the convention adjourned.

Wilson Receives the News.

Seagirt, N. J., July 2.—Twenty newspaper reporters sitting coatless and hatless on the lawn of New Jersey's "Little White House" this afternoon saw an operator come out of the telegraph station, with a yellow blank in his hand. He stood for a moment in silhouette against the canvas background and read:

"Wilson is nominated."

When he looked up 20 chairs were rocking vacantly in the breeze and the 20 men who had faced him a moment before were half a hundred feet away, scampering in a straggling line for a spot on the Governor's porch where a short time before a tall, thin man in a gray suit had been sitting.

The chair where he had sat was empty and they burst into the parlor door.

"Mr. President," they shouted with one voice, "We congratulate you."

They found the man they sought when his life as nominee of the Democratic party was less than a minute old. He was laughing and chatting with his wife and daughters. The news, he said, had come a moment before over the long distance telephone after days of anxious waiting and the few seconds he had spent with his family were his first of real elation during the week.

"The honor is as great as can come to any man by the nomination of a party," he said, "especially in the circumstances. I hope I appreciate it at its true value, but just at this moment I feel the tremendous responsibility it involves even more than I feel the honor.

"I hope with all my heart that the party will never have reason to regret it."

The Governor was allowed only a respite before there proceeded the deluge of callers who had hung about the tickers and bulletins for seven days. They cheered again and again. Between bursts of applause they called him "Woodrow" and "Governor" and "Wilson," but most of all, they hailed him as "the next President of the United States."

A thousand yards away a company of militia on the rifle range were engaged in target practice. Some one telephoned the club house and the firing ceased. Down the twisted roadway there raced a bevy of automobiles. As they drew up in front of the Governor's cottage half a dozen men jumped from one and ran with a flash of bunting under their arms to a lofty flag pole and a second later, a 40-foot flag was ripping from the top in the breeze.

"Three cheers for the next President," shouted a lusty lunged enthusiast and the crowd gave them with a will. The Governor removed his soft brown hat, bowed and said:

"Gentlemen, I thank you from my heart."

Further yet down the road—a mile, they said, though it seemed like two—a brass band of 40 pieces lay under cover awaiting a signal. They had been waiting there two days, practicing the evenings on "Hail to the Chief" and "See the Conquering Hero Comes." When the signal came, the leader stepped out and asked if they were ready.

They were. So they marched down the road in the wake of innumerable automobiles, past scores of pedestrians with a growing entourage and stopped on the Governor's lawn. And there they played while the visitors applauded and the Governor beamed his thanks.

Within the Governor's parlor there was a great crowding of visitors and shaking of hands and bestowing of all sorts of good wishes and predictions.

The Governor's three daughters, Misses Jessie, Margaret and Eleanor were quite beside themselves with happiness while Mrs. Wilson smiled and said she felt, "Oh, so solemn," and that "the responsibility was almost as terrible as the suspense." But the Governor acted like an enthusiastic boy grown dignified and said it was almost too good to be true.

Miss Jessie opened the Presidential campaign of 1912 for her father. She gathered a pocketful of Wilson buttons and pinned them on the callers. She did not forget four brawny railroad brakemen who came in to shake the Governor's hand and tell him that they were tired of being Republicans and would cast their first Democratic votes for him.

From Long Branch to Point Pleasant, through a score of towns and cities by the sea, all roads led to the Governor's home. Cabmen from nearby towns reaped a harvest. All the Northern Jersey coast seemed tonight to be trying to crowd into Seagirt. Hundreds of automobiles made it their mecca.

The days of waiting have not all been bright. Last Friday evening the Governor's chances seemed to have gone glimmering when Clark polled a majority and he telephoned his managers at Baltimore to release his delegates. Word came back that they refused to be released and not a man, he said today, deserted him.

Meanwhile, the Governor told his secretary, and his secretary offered to lay a small wager on Champ Clark against the field with an old-time friend. The friend took the bet. The secretary paid tonight.

Governor Wilson has not decided whether he will resign as New Jersey's Governor to make his Presidential campaign.

His close friends say he won't—at least not for a while and probably not until election.

CHECK FLASHER.

Cuban Who Worked State May be in Reformatory.

Statesville, N. C., July 2.—Readers of these dispatches will recall that some months ago one Francisco Alvarez, an intelligent and rather "sporty" Cuban, spent a few days in Statesville and Charlotte and during that time managed to pass alleged bogus checks amounting to several hundred dollars, the alleged forgeries being discovered after the departure of the Cuban. The bankers' association took the matter in hand and detectives were put to work on the case, and at one time it was thought that Alvarez had been located in Cuba. The latest development, which gives the Statesville people, who were worked, new hope, is a photograph and description received by Cashier E. S. Pegram, of the First National Bank. The proto, etc., is from the officers of Kokomo, Ind., and practically all who have examined the picture believe that it is that of Alvarez wanted here. The officers state that the photo is that of a man who is serving a term in the reformatory at Jeffersonville, Ind., for forging a check at Kokomo in May and he is listed as Frank Alvarez, alias Jose Diaz.

CHILD DROWNS IN SPRING

Falls In While Trying to Get A Bucket Of Water

Frederick, Md., July 1.—Leaning over the spring to fill his little bucket with water, Lester, the 2-year-old son of Mrs. Della Nixon, of near Ijamsville, lost his balance, fell into the water and was drowned before assistance came upon the scene. The child had seen others go to the spring for water and attempted to do what they did. After being missed for about 15 minutes, his body was found lying face downward in the stream. The bucket was at the bottom of the pool near the child's body. About a year ago Mr. Dixon was killed by an electric car in Washington.

OUTLINES

Melvin Vaniman and crew of four were instantly kiled at Atlantic City, N. J., yesterday, when the great dirigible airship Akron exploded 500 feet up in the air, and the unfortunate men were hurled into the Atlantic ocean, death being instantaneous.

Woodrow Wilson was nominated as the Democratic party's Presidential candidate at Baltimore yesterday afternoon on the 46th ballot. When the convention met shortly after noon Illinois started a break for Wilson which soon became general, his nomination finally being made unanimous.

Senator Dixon, after conferring with Col. Roosevelt, announced yesterday that the Progressive party's convention woud be held at Chicago about August 1st.

Thousands of people, of varying politics, called on Woodrow Wilson at Sea Girt, N. J., yesterday, to pay their respects to the Democratic nominee.

In speaking of the result of the Democratic convention yesterday, Champ Clark attributed his defeat to William Jennings Bryan.

Representative Oscar Underwood declared last night that he did not withdraw from the Presidential race, but his manager, Senator Bankhead, released the Underwood delegates without his knowledge.

er, from the start and many of the Wilson-Bryan States cast their votes for him.

The straight Wilson vote generally went to Burke or Chamberlain. New York gave Marshall 90 votes; Illinois' 58 on this ballot went to Elmore W. Hurst, a native son. Missouri gave Mayor Preston, of Baltimore, a vote of 26. The first ballot on the Vice Presidential nomination resulted as follows: Marshall 389; Burke 305 2-3; Chamberlain 157; Hurst, of Illinois, 77; Preston, 78; McCombs 10; Osborne 9; Sulzer 3; Wade 6; Absent 46 2-3.

Convention A Love Feast

Baltimore, July 2.—The Democratic National Convention became a love feast tonight when it met to select a running mate for Governor Woodrow Wilson. The intense bitterness of the past week seemed to have disappeared.

When the convention suspended the regular order of business—the nomination of a Vice Presidential candidate—shortly before 11 o'clock to make way for the reading and adoption of the platform, six candidates for the Vice Presidency had been placed in nomination. They were:

Governor Burke, of North Dakota; Governor Marshall, of Indiana; Elmore W. Hurst, of Illinois; Martin J. Wade, of Iowa; James H. Preston, of Maryland, and Champ Clark.

The suggestion of Champ Clark for second place on the ticket was the feature of the evening's performance. The sentiment of the convention was strongly in favor of giving the Speaker the place if he would accept it. H. H. Dean, of Georgia, placed Clark in nomination and took the convention unawares. The Clark leaders held excited conferences and the Speaker himself was called on the telephone. Despite a speech by former Governor A. M. Dockery, of Missouri, withdrawing Clark's name and a telegraphed statement from the Speaker himself declaring he would not take the place, the convention was still hopeful of his final acceptance, and one of the reasons for the suspension of the vote on the nominations was the desire of the leaders to make sure of Clark's position.

Governor Burke, of North Dakota, seemingly was backed strongly for the second place. His name was roundly cheered when it was placed before the convention.

HOSPITAL REFUSED CASE.

Old Negro Man Had to be Sent to One of the Pest Houses.

The relations between the city administration and the James Walker Memorial Hospital, which in the past have not always been of the best, were strained slightly again yesterday when the hospital refused to accept a patient which Dr. John Thames, assistant superintendent of health, had sent to the institution. The patient was an old negro man, suffering with cancer of the breast, and it was finally necessary to send him to one of the pest houses, in order that he might be cared for.

The old negro came to the police station Monday afternoon, stating that he was sick and unable to care for himself. He was referred to Dr. Thames, assistant city superintendent of health, who sent him to the hospital.

The old negro was sent back from the hospital to the City Hall, and the police were obliged to find a place in a cell for him Monday night.

Yesterday morning Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, called up the hospital and said he was told that they had no room for the old man.

Dr. Nesbitt reminded them that they had an isolated ward for infectious cases which at present is not occupied. He was then informed that the hospital did not have a bed for the old man. Dr. Nesbitt told the authorities that the city would be glad to send a bed out for the man. However, the hospital is said to have declined to have the patient at all.
